UDDHAV FACTION GETS NEW NAME, 'FLAMING TORCH' AS SYMBOL

MUMBAI: The Uddhav Thackeray group on Monday expressed satisfaction over the Election Commission (EC) allotting 'Shiv Sena – Uddhav Balasaheb Thackeray' as the name for the faction. The EC also okayed 'flaming torch' (mashaal) as election symbol to the faction. The EC, however, denied 'trishul' and 'gada' (mace) as poll symbols to rival Shiv Sena factions, citing religious connotations.

ECONOMICS NOBEL FOR FORMER FED CHAIR BERNANKE, 2 OTHERS

Ben Bernanke, Douglas Diamond and Philip Dybvig won the award for their research on why avoiding bank failure is vital

BANK RUNS CAN CAUSE ECONOMIC DEVASTATION

HE PERFECTED THE ART OF THE POSSIBLE

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

MULAYAM SINGH YADAV
22 November 1939 ■ 10 October 2022

If politics is the art of the possible, Mulayam Singh Yadav was its consummate practitioner. Though he was a pivot for opposition politics for decades, he had no problems in praising Narendra Modi in Parliament in 2019, wishing he would return as prime minister after the Lok Sabha elections that year.

He sought to spike Congress leader Sonia Gandhi's attempt to become PM in 1999 by raking up her foreign origin, but was quite comfortable entering into electoral alliances with her party when it suited him. For that matter, he even tied up with the BJP and the BSP on occasions though he was a Socialist by ideology.

When there was a glimmer of a chance for him to become PM in 1996, Lalu Yadav snuffed it out, yet Mulayam later forged familial and political ties with him. He staunchly opposed the women's reservation bill in Parliament, but had no problems giving party tickets to women in his family.

That was the Netaji of UP — the tallest personality in the Hindi heartland spanning over five decades. When his end came following prolonged illness, at Medanta Hospital in Delhi on Monday, he left behind the biggest political dynasty in the country. He was 82. His body has been taken to his native village Saifai for cremation.

Three stints as chief minister of UP, getting elected 10 times as MLA, seven in Parliament, besides serving as Union defence minister for a couple of years as part of the United Front government, gave him rich experience and honed his survival skills, earning him the moniker of Dhartiputra (son of the soil). He could have taken another shot at power after his Samajwadi Party got a majority on its own for the first time in UP in 2012, but passed on the CM baton to son Akhilesh Yadav.

A wrestler and a teacher in his early life, Mulayam's entry into politics had its origin in a wrestling match. Then a 28-year-old, he was participating in a match in Mainpuri where he impressed Nathu Singh, the then MLA of Jaswantnagar in Mainpuri with his grappling skills. Nathu Singh chose Mulayam as his protege and fielded him as the candidate on his Jaswantnagar Assembly seat on the Sanyukta Socialist Party ticket. Ever since, there was no looking back, as he represented different parties each time till he floated the SP in 1992 at the height of the Ram temple movement.

Born to Murti Devi and Sughar Singh on November 22, 1939, in Saifai, he was a Lohiaite who became a master in political machinations, flooring rivals across the spectrum through what his admirers called was his Charkha Daav, using wrestling parlance.

Looked upon as a champion of social justice, Mulayam thrived on anti-Congressism in politics after the departure of Ram Manohar Lohia and Jaiprakash Narain. He became the axis of politics of the backward classes in UP after the Mandal movement. It was he who edged out the Congress from UP and captured its space, becoming the face of the pro-Mandal forces in UP.

The demolition of the disputed structure in Ayodhya in 1992 and incidents before and after it played an important role in Mulayam's career, especially when hardcore Hindutva politics started taking centrestage. In 1990, he, as CM, ordered police firing on kar sewaks in Ayodhya, which drew Muslims towards the SP. He thus built a formidable M-Y (Muslim-Yadav) combination, ignoring opposition barbs of 'Mullah Mulayam'.

By 2016, when faultlines within the family emerged as Akhilesh and brother Shivpal squabbled to capture the party, he remained a mute spectator and later sided with his son. The SP's stock dipped ever since. P9

CID to probe inter-state racket of fake fertilisers

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @ Bengaluru

THE Criminal Investigation Department (CID) has taken up a probe into an inter-state gang involved in selling substandard seeds and fertilisers to farmers in the state. The move comes in the wake of increasing number of seizures of low-quality seeds and fertilisers, following which the Agriculture Department had sought the state Police Department's help to crack down on those involved in the illegal activity.

Farmers are generally advised to buy certified seeds which are priced a little higher. However, the farmers are lured into buying substandard seeds, which are cheaper and look very much like the certified quality. As per agriculture experts, seeds used for sowing should have a certain percentage of germination for farmers to get a better yield.

"Many cases of suicide by farmers are linked to the use of substandard seeds depriving them of a good yield. This forces them to take the extreme step," an official said.

In the last three years, as per data shared by the Agriculture Department, the Vigilance team of the department registered 315 cases related to sale of substandard seeds, duplicate fertilisers and manure.

The number of cases registered has been increasing every year. From 71 in 2020-21 to 141 cases in 2021-22.

This year, till September, 103 cases have been registered. The authorities have even cancelled licences of 248 authorised agencies, after they were found selling substandard seeds. In some cases, penalties were also imposed.

BJP feels AAP heat in Guj, Modi calls it Urban Naxal

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

TARGETING the Aam Aadmi Party which is trying to make inroads into Gujarat ahead of the state elections, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday said 'Urban Naxals' are trying to enter Gujarat in the garb of politicians. He said the same set of people managed to delay the state's progress for more than 40 years by blocking the construction of the Sardar Sarovar dam. They will not be allowed to destroy the lives of youth, he warned.

"The Urban Naxals are setting foot from above. We won't let them destroy our young generation. We should warn our children against those who have taken up the task of destroying the country. They are agents of foreign powers. Gujarat will not bow down its head against them, Gujarat will destroy them," the PM said without naming the Arvind Kejriwal-led party.

Modi was speaking after laying the foundation stone of India's first bulk drug park in Gujarat's Bharuch district. His comments came a day after a video of AAP's Gujarat chief Gopal Italia surfaced in which he used a derogatory term for the PM and AAP leader and Delhi social welfare minister Rajendra Pal Gautam had to resign over his remarks against Hindu deities. The PM is on a three-day visit to Gujarat. On Monday, he laid the foundation stone of multiple projects worth ₹8,000 crore at Amod in Bharuch district.

@ Huliyar (Tumakuru district)

"SOME days you walk, some days you sprint! Chasing a dream requires you to do both (sic)", tweeted KPCC president D K Shivakumar.

The tweet from the Congress heavyweight comes after he was made to run, wielding the Congress flag, for about 100 metres by none other than his party leader Rahul Gandhi during the ongoing 'Bharat Jodo Yatra' at Basavanagudi Kenkere stretch near Huliyur in Tumakuru district.

It may be recalled that a few days ago, Rahul had made senior party leader Siddaramaiah run by holding his hand.

Rahul's initiative has been attracting mixed reactions from Twitterati. "This is cruel...please take care of your health Mr Shivakumar (sic)", tweeted 'Spare the Fundamentalist'.

"Many privileged politicians fancy cars at their disposal, would have never thought even in their wildest dreams that they would have to walk, sprint the stretch along with Rahul Gandhi", tweeted another user Ravi.

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi and KPCC chief DK Shivakumar run in Hiriyur on Monday | EXPRESS

It appears Rahul wants to ensure that the rank and file of his party are in good shape and in the process he's not sparing even the senior leaders.

Some say Rahul Gandhi wants to focus not only on the fitness of his party leaders and workers but also want to send a message that there's no room for complacency in an election year.

The former Congress president, while addressing a press conference recently, had said that the Bharat Jodo Yatra is different.

No city for bachelors, house owners prefer families as their tenants

NAMRATA SINDWANI @Bengaluru

WHEN bachelors come to Bengaluru, the first impediment they have to overcome is to find a rented place to stay.

When the owner of a house or flat starts questioning the potential tenant for details, the first condition laid down is that only families are allowed.

Above that, brokerage and security deposits are high, with extended notice periods, issues of veg/non-veg food, and sometimes even religion comes into the discussion, preventing bachelors from getting a house.

Nisha (name changed), a girl from Kolkata, said that some house owners refused to allow her because of her religion.

Owners' inclination towards families is one of the major reasons they are rejected, bachelors complained. Ankita Mazumdar, another bachelor residing in Whitefield, said that the house owners believed that families are capable of maintaining the house better.

Another factor, Mazumdar said, was the number of houses available was much lower than the demand from bachelors, and so, owners can be fastidious.

There are other issues like preference of food, or if someone has a pet, she said.

Another IT professional, Pulkit Mahajan, a resident of Indiranagar, said that he and his flatmates were asked to vacate the house for using the lift frequently, which apparently increased electricity bill. He alleged that they were harassed on several occasions, and added that the using the lift was seen as a nuisance by the owner.

They were asked to cut down their usage of the lift or pay the excess bill amount. Eventually, there were asked to leave the apartment. Mahajan is worried about going through the exercise of hunting house again again, while he stands to lose his deposit.

Brakes on aggregator autos, drivers launch stir

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

RTO officials in Jayanagar faced protest from more than 150 aggregator auto drives on Monday afternoon for seizing their vehicles after the Karnataka government ordered a ban on aggregator services.

The drivers blocked the road, hampering traffic movement.

Following the orders of the Transport Department, RTO officers across the city seized several autorickshaws, and the drivers were penalised ₹500.

Aggregators Ola, Uber, and Rapido were served notices, stating that their autorickshaw services were illegal. However, the services continued, and on Sunday, the state Transport Department officials warned the aggregators that since they have failed to comply with the order, enforcement will begin from Monday. Auto drivers were warned that action will be taken for accepting bookings on apps.

"The RTO officials were checking the autorickshaws not only to see if there were passengers, but also to see if they were booked on Uber, Ola or other aggregator apps. This is a routine check which is done for all violations. The drivers wanted to know why action is being taken against them instead of the aggregators. The drivers claimed the aggregators earn more commission, and they were getting nominal payments. Those autorickshaws which are partner of aggregators will be seized on the directions of the Transport Department Commissioner," KT Halaswamy, Joint Commissioner, Transport, Bengaluru Urban told TNIE.

Since a case against the aggregators is pending decision in the high court, the department cannot act against them.

The auto drivers alleged that the RTO inspectors were themselves booking on the app to catch them.

"Auto drivers were persuaded to leave the area by around 4 pm. Traffic was diverted since the road was one-way," KV Srinivas, ACP, Jayanagar subdivision told TNIE.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

11TH October : It's a Scorpio day today. Lots of people have a strange idea of this sign as 'sexy', or devious and manipulative. That's sad, because they overlook its loyalty to its friends, dedication to its principles and ability to see any job through to completion - as long as it's worthwhile.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Today's very special social and romantic planet ary pattern is one to be welcomed and enjoyed, so do the sensible thing and make love and friendship your highest priorities. In fact, it's a day which favours everyone with a poetic outlook on the world. If you stick to your normal rut you'll miss out.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Something marvellous is about to happen. Partners, loved ones and colleagues, in fact anyone you're involved with very closely, will change their minds. They may even come out with it and say that you were right all along. Give it a few more days!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Take the initiative, especially at work. You may find that news which has been held up will now arrive; if not today, then certainly by the end of the week. When it does appear, you'll be able to clarify your options. Mind you, too many choices could be the last thing you need now.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
If the current working pattern of your life does not live up to expectations, or if you do not feel that you are being adequately rewarded, it's because you are not drawing on your personal skills. Do something about it! And if someone else has the best ideas then listen carefully.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
The Moon encourages you to deal with business, especially anything in which other people are closely involved. The only trouble is that it also heightens your imagination while reducing your grasp of the facts. You may turn this to your advantage.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You should listen to what partners are saying. You may have to be a mind-reader to pick up the full significance of their words and thoughts, and at the very least you'll be forced to read between the lines. But, then, that's the best way to pick up the messages that have passed partners by.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
There's a chance that you may remain trapped in an emotional rut or oblivious to the many unique opportunities which are beginning to present themselves. Your best approach today should be to tackle routine chores, clearing the decks for the future.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
There seems to be reasonable scope for pleasure today. The implication is that even the dullest activity can be livened up if only you would change your attitudes. There's also a chance to improve relationships with children and younger family members.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Sometimes life can be surprisingly logical. For the next few days you will get nowhere unless you start at the beginning, then deal with the middle, and finish at the end. In other words, if you do things out of their proper order you may waste your time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You have a few days in which to think, talk and ponder the future. The mood of the moment is rather poetic, so you may concentrate on conveying meaning rather than listing the facts. After all, what you really want is for partners to actually understand you!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Your stars are nicely adventurous and certainly very hopeful. Perhaps you can leave all dull and boring matters for next week and exploit every opportunity to socialise, travel and expand your spiritual horizons. The only trouble could be caused by rising costs, so just keep an eye on your commitments and don't promise more than you can afford.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Soon you will hold most of the trump cards. For now, your hand is not very much stronger than your partners', which means that you cannot afford to squander your opportunities or waste your many talents. By tomorrow time will have moved on and you might have missed your chance - for another month.

Highlight several accidents on campus; 15-20 student leaders taken into custody, released

DONNA EVA @Bengaluru

TENSION broke out at Bangalore University, following the horrific accident on campus that led to the hospitalisation of a first-year MSc student.

Students took up a protest, demanding restrictions on public entry into the campus. The students had earlier highlighted several accidents involving students and faculty on campus -- both due to the public's unrestricted access inside campus as well as poor road work. With Monday's incident being the straw that broke the camel's back, students protested at the accident spot, where a BMTC bus ran over first-year MSc student Shilpa, who was attempting to board the bus. The 22-year-old is a Mathematics student from Bangarpet, who was studying at the university and resided at the hostel on campus.

The students demanded that public access to the campus be restricted, including public transport. "We have been demanding this for months now, since accidents happen almost every week on this road. We want the university authorities to ensure the public is restricted from entry into the campus, and not allowed to move freely," Sathish G K, vice-president of BU Students' Association told TNIE.

However, the students had earlier protested to allow public transport within the university campus for the benefit of students.

BU VC Dr Jayakar S M, despite not being in the city on Monday, sent assurances to the students that the matter would be discussed with the state government. "He has said that university authorities will draft a letter to the state government, and a meeting will be held to see how this can be prevented from happening again," Sathish said.

However, while the issue seemed mostly resolved, Jnanabharati Police Station took into custody 15 to 20 student leaders protesting at the site of the accident. This sparked another wave of protests, this time with students moving towards the front of the police station and demanding the release of the students.

Late Monday night, the students were released from custody, following DCP West Laxman M Nimbargi's intervention.

Traffic police create green corridor to shift student

THE traffic police, who reached the spot, took Shilpa to a clinic on the campus before shifting her to a private hospital in Nagarabavi. From there she was again shifted to Fortis Hospital on Bannerghatta Road.

As Shilpa's condition was serious, police created a green corridor from Nagarabavi to Bannerghatta Road. "From the time of the accident which took place on the Jnanabharathi campus to shifting her to a hospital in Nagarabavi and then to Fortis Hospital on Bannerghatta Road, it took us around one hour. As saving her life was our top priority, a green corridor was created for her," an officer said.

Bikers stop car, throw chilli powder into driver's eyes

PRAVEEN KUMAR @Bengaluru

The Chief Executive Officer of a Primary Agricultural Credit Society was attacked by two bike-borne miscreants on Bengaluru-Mysuru Road. The victim, GH Hanumaiah, 49, was driving a car when the men stopped him and asked him to lower the window glass. As he rolled down the glass, the men threw chilli powder into his eyes.

Blinded, Hanumaiah started screaming. This caught the attention of passing motorists who slowed down near him, and the accused fled on their bike. The victim, after cleaning his eyes with water, called his friends and a family member to take him to hospital as his vision was blurred. The hospital, after registering a medico-legal case, informed the jurisdictional police.

The victim told police he had absolutely no idea who was behind the attack. Police suspect that the accused could be either robbers or were sent by someone who had a dispute with the victim. Hanumaiah is a resident of V Pura on Ramanagara Road. He was attacked 2km from his house, when he was on his way to meet the president of the Society, to submit some documents.

Hanumaiah said he doesn't know who committed the act. "The accused came next to the car and told me to lower the glass. Assuming they were seeking directions, I lowered the glass when they threw chilli powder into my eyes. If they were robbers, they could have snatched the gold chain I was wearing. I suspect the attack must be over a professional issue," he said.

Hanumaiah is undergoing treatment in a government hospital near Ramanagara.

Jurisdictional police, who registered a case of wrongful restraint and voluntarily causing hurt, said the accused are yet to be arrested.

e-Manas launch at Nimhans turns focus on mental health

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

GOVERNOR Thaawarchand Gehlot on Monday launched the national version of Karnataka's e-Manas platform at Nimhans. The Tele-Manas (Mental Health Assistance and Networking Across States) platform will begin in 20 states and Union Territories, eventually expanding to all states.

Speaking at the launch of the Tele-Manas platform as well as the 26th convocation of Nimhans, State Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar said the institution was a model for the national rollout of the platform. "The e-Manas platform was such a hit that Nimhans has become a role model for the national rollout. Karnataka has emerged as a pioneer in the field of mental healthcare. Through its initiatives in the field of mental health, Karnataka is achieving the goal of World Mental Health Day 2022, which is 'Make Mental Health and Wellbeing for All a Global Priority' in the state, and this is in major part due to Nimhans," he said.

He also highlighted that the state would not dilute its focus on mental healthcare post the pandemic. "We are establishing permanent systems to provide good mental healthcare for all in the state," he said.

The e-Manas programme was launched previously in the state to cater to the mental health needs of citizens during the pandemic. The platform, which is to act as the digital arm of the 'District Mental Health Programme', will help provide support, counselling and other mental healthcare services. In addition, the platform will allow access to emergency psychiatric facilities, Ayushman Bharat Health and Wellness Centres, and eSanjeevani.

There is no comparison between the state tour by our leaders and Rahul Gandhi's yatra. Congress leaders' yatra is just a PR exercise. Our programmes will be specific to each constituency

N Ravi Kumar, BJP leader

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

WITH Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra traversing through the Central Karnataka region, top BJP leaders in the state are embarking on a statewide tour from Kalyana-Karnataka region from Tuesday to set the tone for the party's campaign for the 2023 Assembly elections.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and his predecessor BS Yediyurappa are starting their tour from Raichur Rural and Maski Assembly segments in Raichur district, represented by Congress MLAs, on Tuesday. They will be in Koppal, Vijayanagara and Ballari districts on Wednesday and Thursday.

Bommai and Yediyurappa will visit 52 Assembly segments by December-end. Of these, 28 are held by BJP, 20 by Congress and four by Janata Dal (Secular). The party is also holding seven conventions focused on different segments. "We have a target of winning 150 seats in the 2023 Assembly polls and our leaders will visit 150 Assembly segments by December-end," said senior BJP leader and MLC N Ravi Kumar. Teams headed by BJP state president Nalinkumar Kateel and BJP National General Secretary and in-charge of Karnataka Arun Singh are also visiting different constituencies.

Top BJP leaders will speak about programmes of the state and Central governments and present the government's report card before the people. They will also counter Congress' allegations against the government, including the '40 per cent commission' charge made by the contractors' association. Rahul too had attacked the government on corruption during the ongoing Bharat Jodo Yatra, which is seen to have energised Congress leaders and workers in the state. But BJP leader Ravi Kumar termed the yatra a PR exercise that will not have any impact. "There is no comparison between the state tour by our leaders and Rahul Gandhi's yatra. Congress leaders' yatra is just a PR exercise and they are mobilising people from all over the state. Our programmes will be specific to each constituency," he said.

BJP leaders will also listen to problems faced by people and take measures to address them, he said. The government took the historic decision of increasing the SC/ST reservation, appointment of teachers, decision to give permanent jobs to pourakarmikas, provide property documents at the doorsteps and many other pro-people initiatives, Ravi Kumar said.

DP to FB, yatra with RaGa is new social media status

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

WALK it, flaunt it. Those who walked with Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on the Bharat Jodo Yatra have been swift to upload selfies and photographs on social media, flaunting that they had been there and done it. "I walked with Rahul Gandhi," is turning into a trend, from Twitter to Facebook to plain DP.

Ashwin Kumaraswamy of Chikkanayakanahalli posted on Twitter on Monday, "I walked with my leader Rahul Gandhi in my assembly constituency Chikknayakanahalli, Tumakuru, Karnataka. Bharat Jodo Yatra has brought new energy to bridge hearts and capture minds of people to build an inclusive India."

Dr Udit Raj, who walked with Rahul less than two weeks ago, tweeted, "I walked with Rahul Gandhi then I realized how great this man is, someone who is not bothered about electoral gain but is doing it for the welfare of the country. I would not have realized if I had not participated."

While these are common citizens who walked that mile with Rahul, former MLA Madhu Bangarappa said, "Rahul Gandhi held my hand and expressed concern for my family. We spoke about my father former chief minister S Bangarappa, who was brought in by his father former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, and other issues as we walked for about 8km." Madhu is planning to contest the assembly polls on a Congress ticket from Shivamogga.

I can understand their problems are much greater than mine. The people encourage me".

This NY-based doctor walks for peace

G SUBHASH CHANDRA @ Hiriyur

SHE is a doctor who has been staying in New York for the last 20 years. A non-political person, she was motivated to take part in Bharat Jodo Yatra as she felt that the country was losing its peace and tranquility.

Dr Sneha Reddy, who hails from Bengaluru, says, "After coming to know about Bharat Jodo Yatra by Rahul Gandhi through the media, I immediately decided to join it. Now, I am walking every day, meeting new people and understanding the country well."

Talking to TNIE while walking along with other yatris, 50-year-old Dr Reddy said, "Even though I stay in far away New York, I keep a close track of what is happening in India, more importantly Karnataka. I found that the peace and tranquility that prevailed in the country was fading away fast and it was heart-wrenching. It was at this point that I decided to walk for the country. I landed in India and started walking from Kanyakumari. I will go till the end and be part of the yatra till Kashmir. Rahul's Yatra has been received well by the people of Karnataka, Kerala and Tamil Nadu. This will bring a change in society."

Dr Sneha Reddy

She starts her journey every morning at 6.30 and interacts with people and children who are taking part in the yatra. "I have decided to go to Kashmir. It is to ensure that the country will return to normal. Every day, I walk 20 km. I am non-politic. Participating in the yatra has brought me happiness," she added.

She said the common man in the country is frustrated and the healthcare system is not up to the mark. The government should provide better care, she added. "My perception about Rahul Gandhi was different, but it changed after I interacted with him. He is a great leader who is fit and fine. He can steer the country towards equality," she added.

Dr Reddy completed her studies in Bengaluru and has been staying in the US for the last 20 years.

Zero tolerance for intolerance is yatra's message: Rahul

G SUBHASH CHANDRA @ Gunnayakanahalli (Chitradurga dt)

"INDIA cannot be divided, it will be united forever. Through this Bharat Jodo Yatra, I can see the unity," said Congress leader Rahul Gandhi.

Addressing the crowd during a corner meeting on the Bidar to Chamarajnagar National Highway, he said no can defeat the idea of India, and the battle of uniting and dividing India is not new. "The battle of hatred was fought by Basaveshwara, Narayana Guru and even Dr BR Ambedkar. The voices heard in the yatra are those of great leaders. None of these leaders propagated violence," he added.

The yatra is sending a clear message that we are not going to tolerate intolerance, will not accept unemployment and not suffer from rising prices. "During the yatra, I have met a large number of homemakers whose only question is rising prices of essential commodities and the spiralling prices of domestic gas cylinders, which has increased from Rs 400 to Rs 1,000. Farmers are questioning why GST has been imposed on fertilisers and farm equipment," he said.

Targeting business tycoons Mukesh Ambani and Gautam Adani, he said, "We will not tolerate that a few people steal can anything while the rest starve. The yatra is about bringing equality." The Congress MP further said the Bharat Jodo Yatra is about fighting hatred, anger and violence that the BJP and RSS has been spreading across the country, through love, affection and by connecting hearts.

The yatra is also sending the message to the BJP that India will not be divided.

According to political pundits, gone are the days when Congress party candidates won elections hands down in the Nehru-Indira era. They have now realised that unless they reconnect with people on the ground, revival of the grand old party would be difficult.

Karnataka leaders mourn Mulayam

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

MANY political leaders from Karnataka, including Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and former PM HD Deve Gowda, condoled the death of former Uttar Pradesh chief minister and Samajwadi Party patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav on Monday.

"Saddened at the demise of Shri Mulayam Singh Yadav, the Samajwadi Party patriarch, three-time Chief Minister of UP & country's ex Defence Minister. A true son of the soil, he was a leader of the masses. My heartfelt condolences to his family & friends. May his soul rest in peace," Bommai tweeted.

Expressing his condolences to the family of the political stalwart, Gowda expressed sadness at the passing away of his longtime colleague and friend. "He was deeply committed to the secular and socialist political traditions. Will miss him very much," the JDS supremo tweeted.

Opposition leader in the Assembly Siddaramaiah said Mulayam was one of the strongest forces in the country's fight against communal politics. Congress general secretary and Karnataka in-charge KC Venugopal hailed his socialist values and said Mulayam has left behind a remarkable legacy.

Former chief minister BS Yediyurappa said Mulayam's demise is a loss to national polity.

SC allows Janardhana to visit Ballari

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @NewDelhi

THE Supreme Court on Monday allowed former minister Gali Janardhana Reddy, who is accused in the multi-crore illegal mining case, to visit Ballari district to meet his daughter and stay there till November 6.

A bench of Justices MR Shah and Krishna Murari also directed the trial court to conduct trial on a day-to-day basis and complete the entire exercise in six months, starting from November 9. It asked the prosecution to first examine witnesses from Ballari as well as Anantapur and Kadapa in Andhra Pradesh.

Directing Reddy to stay out of Ballari till the completion of the trial, the bench said any attempt by Reddy to delay the trial will be dealt with an iron hand. "All the accused are directed to cooperate with the Special Court in conclusion of the trial at the earliest and within the period stipulated and any attempt on the part of the accused to delay the trial shall be viewed very seriously," it said.

State govt decision on quota comes just before Rahul's yatra into ST heartland

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @Bengaluru

THE Basavaraj Bommai government's decision to increase reservation for SC/STs incidentally came just days before Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra enters areas that are dominated by Scheduled Tribes that is from Hiriyuru in Chitradurga district to Ballari and Raichur districts.

SC/STs, especially Nayakas who are STs, had been demanding an increase in reservation and implementation of the Justice Nagamohan Das committee recommendation for a long time.

Transport Minister B Sriramulu, a prominent ST community leader, had said before the 2018 Assembly elections that soon after BJP assumes power, it would pass the order to hike the reservation. As the decision had got delayed, Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah used to mock him.

If not for the government's decision now, Congress would have raised the issue in this ST-dominated region during Rahul's yatra and gained political mileage out of it, said a BJP leader. The quota proposal was accepted because of the efforts of Sriramulu, he added.

But Siddaramaiah, who was in Raichur to organise party workers for the yatra, on Monday sought to know how the government is going to implement the quota order, which violates the 50 per cent limit set by the Supreme Court and requires an amendment to the Constitution. "It is a long process as the Assembly and Lok Sabha have to clear it through a bill for the amendment. Later, it should get the President's nod. Without revealing all these processes, the BJP government is misleading the SC/ST population," he alleged.

KPCC communication wing chief and MLA Priyank Kharge alleged that the BJP government, which had not acted for over two years, is now abdicating its responsibility and passing it on to others. "The government set up the Justice Subash B Adi committee to delay implementing the Justice Nagamohan Das committee recommendations. It was forced to take the decision as Valmiki religious head Sri Prasannanandapuri was sitting on a dharna for 200 days," he charged.

Revenue Minister R Ashoka said the government acted after examining the Subash Adi committee report. "We are also considering the demands of Vokkaligas, who want a 10 per cent quota, Lingayats and Edigas," he added.

QUOTA HIKE A POLITICAL GIMMICK: CONG

Mysuru : KPCC spokesperson M Lakshman on Monday termed the government's move to increase the SC/ST quota a "political gimmick", saying the BJP and Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh have always been against reservation.

Lakshman said the government has only announced that it will implement the Nagamohan Das committee report, but has not done it. "It should be done through a constitutional amendment and the government should take a stand at this juncture, especially when Panchamasalis are demanding 2(a) reservation and Kurubas want an ST tag," he added. It is ironic that BJP, which is privatising all public sector undertakings (PSUs), is talking about reservation. "If everything is privatised, where will reservation be applied? If the government is committed, let them introduce reservation even in the private sector," he said.

Matter involves lives of farmers, says BC Patil

SPEAKING to The New Indian Express, Agriculture Minister B C Patil said his department had written to state DG&IGP Praveen Sood asking for a CID probe. "The increasing number of cases indicate the seriousness of the matter as it involves the lives of farmers. Also, the Vigilance Department has bust an inter-state racket. This is why we gave it to the CID," he said.

In the last six to seven months, vigilance wing of the Agriculture Department has registered 12 cases linked to inter-state racket.

A senior official said people involved in this racket come from other states and sell sub-standard seeds and fertilisers.

"While returning to the neighbouring states, they purchase urea under subsidised rate and illegally sell there at higher rates. Our team have nabbed some of them and seized urea from them in border areas," he said. Most of these cases are registered in a few districts in Karnataka. "Since the issue is serious and may involve different places too, we decided to seek a CID probe," the official added.

DON'T START NEW LANGUAGE WAR: STALIN TO CENTRE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

WARNING the union government against starting another "language war" by imposing Hindi as a compulsory language, Chief Minister MK Stalin on Monday appealed to Prime Minister Modi and the Centre to drop efforts in that direction and uphold the unity of India.

The Chief Minister was reacting to news reports about the recommendation of the parliamentary panel chaired by Union Home Minister Amit Shah that Hindi replace English as the medium of instruction in all central technical and non-technical institutions as well as in central varsities. These institutions include the IITs, IIMs, AIIMS and Kendriya Vidyalayas.

In a statement, Stalin said acting on the recommendation would destroy the nation's unity and noted the panel had also recommended that Hindi be made the common language across India.

Pointing out that the Eight Schedule of the Constitution lists 22 languages, including Tamil, as entitled to equal treatment, he asked where the need arose for the panel to recommend Hindi as the common language of India.

"Why is it recommended to discontinue English language question papers in Union recruitment examinations to give preference to Hindi?" he asked.

Asserting that making one language as common for the whole country is practically impossible, he said mandating it would be akin to stating that only Hindi speakers are the rightful citizens of India and speakers of other languages are second-class citizens.

He stressed that India's character is of unity in diversity and hence all languages must be treated equally. "We should strive to make all languages the official languages of the Union government," he said.

Tamil Nadu Congress Committee president KS Alagiri, MDMK general secretary Vaiko, CPM state secretary K Balakrishnan and others also condemned panel's recommendations and urged the union government to give up the attempts to make Hindi mandatory.

Pinarayi, mins on jaunt abroad with kin at state's expense: Oppn

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ T'Puram/Kozhikode/Kottayam

KERALA Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan and his cabinet colleagues taking families on their official tour abroad has triggered a political row in the state, with the Opposition parties terming the visit "a lesiure trip at the state's expense".

Pinarayi, General Education Minister V Sivankutty and Industries Minister P Rajeeve, along with a groups of high-level officials, are on a European tour. The CM's wife, daughter and grandson, and Sivankutty's wife are accompanying the official delegation.

Leader of Opposition V D Satheesan said the UDF is not against the CM or his cabinet colleagues going abroad. "They went abroad with their families. At a time when politicians are under the scanner, there should be more transparency on such visits. It hasn't gone well with the public" he said.

Satheesan said since the expenses of the visits are borne by the State Government, the government should convince the public about the programmes they attend.

Day after Nayanthara & director Vignesh Shivan welcome twins, probe launched

CHENNAI: A day after film director Vignesh Shivan declared on social media that he and his actress wife, Nayanthara, were blessed with twin boys, Tamil Nadu Health Minister Ma Subramanian said Directorate of Medical Services (DMS) officials will be instructed to look into alleged violations in surrogacy parenting. This comes as speculations spread like wildfire on social media that the couple had opted for surrogacy despite the latter not disclosing any information on the matter. In response to reporters' query if any action will be taken for alleged violations of the Surrogacy (Regulation) Act, 2022, Subramanian said, "Legalities surrounding surrogacy is a topic of discussion. Already, there were a lot of issues regarding oocyte donation, but as per rules, people over 21 years and below 36 years can donate eggs with consent of parents or guardians. So, there is a possibility to consider this." Asked if the rules allow the couple who have been married for four months to go for surrogacy, the minister said, DMS officials will probe this.

Mysuru Palace attracts 2L visitors this Dasara

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

OVER two lakh people visited Mysuru's famous Amba Vilas Palace during the recent 10-day Dasara festivities. A similar number of people also visted the city's Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens.

According to information from the Palace Board, from September 26 to October 8, 2.07 lakh people visited the palace, including 300-odd foreigners and over 6,000 students. The response has come as a great sigh of relief to stakeholders of the tourism sector who were affected owing to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The monthly tourist footfall was not even crossing the 2 lakh-mark over the past two to three years. "We are glad to see that during the 10-day Dasara festivities, more than 2 lakh people visited the palace," said a tourist guide.

The response was similar in the zoo as it saw a total revenue of over Rs 2.6 crore through ticket collection during Dasara festivities. "More than 2 lakh people visited the zoo and even the nearby Karanji lake helped us earn a revenue of Rs 2.6 crore," said Shivakumar, chairman of Zoo Authority of Karnataka. He said that the response has been good even during the weekends which is a sign of the tourism industry getting back on track after being severely hit due to the pandemic.

HC issues directives on giving property as surety for bail

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court issued 16 directions to be followed by the authorities to safeguard the third party, when property belonging to him/her is provided as surety for the release of an accused on bail.

Justice Suraj Govindaraj issued these directions while disposing of a petition filed by B Narayana and another person from Mandya, questioning the proceedings arising out of fake surety which had been created on the property of the petitioner, in relation to a crime registered in the city.

"Several reports which have been filed indicate that this is not a stray occurrence, and that this kind of situation arose on several occasions, which has also resulted in investigation and prosecution. In view of this, I am of the considered opinion that unless effective steps are taken, innocent third parties could be put to great risk, unwittingly and unknowingly," Justice Govindaraj said.

Don't delay filing a case: HC to drugs inspector

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka HC directed the competent authority to register a crime immediately after receiving a sample test report from the laboratory and not resort to red tapism, allowing the alleged guilty go scot-free.

"The Authority should also necessarily peruse and understand the statute for registration of crimes in such matters, as delay will defeat the very object of penal action under the statute," said Justice M Nagaprasanna while mentioning that in the case that was heard, the crime was registered five years and seven months after receiving a lab report.

The court passed the order while quashing the order dated March 31, 2022 by the city sessions court and also another order dated March 20, 2018 by the Special Court for Economic Offences against Jammu-based Emcure Pharmaceuticals, its MD Satish Ramanlal Mehta and Director (Technical) Mahesh Nathalal Shah, as the complaint was registered in 2018, three years and eight months after the period of limitation.

On January 5, 2012, a drugs inspector visited Tulasi Pharma and took a sample of the drug manufactured by the petitioners and he received a report after six months from the Drugs Testing Laboratory that "Not of Standard Quality" with respect to "Assay for Folic Acid".

On October 8, 2013, the drugs inspector submitted probe details to the drugs controller seeking sanction for prosecution. Four years and two months later, the drugs controller permitted prosecution of the petitioners. The drugs inspector registered a private complaint, and filed an application seeking condonation of delay under Section 473 of CrPC read with Section 5 of the Limitation Act. On March 20, 2018, the Special Court condoned the delay which was challenged by the petitioners.

BABIYA, THE VEGETARIAN CROCODILE, PASSES AWAY

MA RAJEEV KUMAR @ Kasaragod

On Monday, disconsolate devotees flocked Ananthapura Anantha Padmanabha Swami temple at Kumbla in Kasaragod to pay their final respects to their dearest Babiya, a mugger crocodile which ate only vegetarian food. The "funeral" of Babiya was held following thantric rituals under the leadership of Ganesha Thantri Delampadi and over 1,000 devotees from Kumbla and nearby areas attended it.

Babiya was found dead around 10pm on Sunday in the lake in front of 'Arikkottil', the place where the 'nivedyam' is prepared.

For many decades, the presence of the crocodile, which eats only vegetarian food given by the devotees and temple officials, in the lake near the temple had attracted devotees from other parts of Kerala and Karnataka. Babiya could also be seen in the small pond on the northern side of the temple at times. The devotees visit the temple would wait patiently to have a look at the "godly presence, as they believed, in the water. When they couldn't see the crocodile, they would shout, "Babiya, come, take this food from us."

"I have been here for more than three decades. I had not heard about any incident in which the crocodile turned violent," said temple manager Lakshmana Hebbar, 63. "We have this feeling that the crocodile was not feeling well for some time. Veterinary doctors were called in to have a look at the reptile," he said. "When we did not see Babiya for the last two days, we started a search and on Sunday night, we found it dead," said Hebbar.

Devotees pay their respects to Babiya at Kumbla in Kasaragod district in Kerala

"The legend is that a British soldier had killed a crocodile in the temple pond in 1945. The night the crocodile was shot dead, Babiya appeared in the pond. Its mysterious appearance made the devotees believe Babiya had divine presence," said Hebbar. It is said that the crocodile was about 77 years of age.

Considered as 'Moola Sthana' of Sree Padmanabha Swami temple in Thiruvananthapuram, Ananthapura temple has been attracting devotees for many years only because of the presence of the "divine" crocodile.

Three veterinary doctors from Kasaragod health department came to the temple and confirmed its death. Later, the carcass was buried outside the temple wall around 12 noon, and devotees bade a tearful farewell to their dearest Babiya.

DHAMNAGAR BYPOLL TO REVEAL IF BJP CAN STAND TEST OF TIME

Come November 3, the Bharatiya Janata Party will face an acid test in the by-election to Dhamnagar Assembly segment in Bhadrak district of Odisha. The poll may appear a smooth affair considering it's a holding seat for the saffron outfit. Will it be? The party has just staved off an attempt by the ruling Biju Janata Dal to poach Bishnu Charan Sethi's son Suryabanshi Suraj Stithaprajna. It was Sethi's untimely demise that necessitated the by-poll. Despite murmurs of discontent from certain party sections, Suryabanshi as the next candidate appeared a natural choice. Things will get interesting once Biju Janata Dal announces its nominee and the Congress throws its hat in the ring.

Between 1952 and 2000, Dhamnagar favoured Congress the most, sending six legislators to the State Assembly. Barring the election of an Independent in 2000, the BJP and the BJD shared equal honours in the last 22 years. However, after the regional party severed ties with BJP in 2009 and exited from the NDA, the BJD won twice before Sethi reclaimed it for the latter.

This by-election comes at a critical juncture for the BJP. After 2019, the national outfit lost all four by-elections to the BJD in the state, and no one is even talking about the shocking losses in panchayat and urban polls. In the Balasore by-poll, the party even failed to retain its seat after the death of incumbent Madan Mohan Dutta, which reduced its numbers in the Assembly from 23 to 22. Despite a strong organisational set-up, factionalism in the BJP is reflected in its recent poor showing; the strong performance in 2019 now appears to be a thing of the past. If it can put its house in order, the next hurdle will be Naveen Patnaik's BJD, a formidable election machine. Given the regional outfit's record at the hustings and deep penetration among the electorate, Dhamnagar could present itself as a unique challenge for the BJP. It received a bout of much-needed energy from national president J P Nadda's visit to the state last month. Nadda's clarion call of "BJD-mukt Odisha" on the lines of Congress-mukt Bharat may have galvanised the saffron party, but the odds are stacked up. Can it shake off its jaded approach and the perception that it is still friends with the BJD before the all-important 2024 general elections? Dhamnagar will tell the tale.

NADA TESTING RIGHT BUT LOTS NEED TO BE DONE

The Indian doping scene is getting murkier by the day. Since last year, high-profile cases have tumbled out of the closet, especially in athletics. Star quarter-miler M R Poovamma, Asian Games 4x400m gold medallist Shivpal Singh, second-best javelin thrower after Olympic champion Neeraj Chopra, Aishwarya B, the long jumper who had the second-best effort after 2003 World Championships medallist, Anju Bobby George, discus thrower Kamalpreet Kaur who finished sixth at the Tokyo Olympics last year, sprinters S Dhanalakshmi and M V Jilna are a few prominent names who tested positive for banned substances and are serving suspensions. If random names used to surface earlier, this time, a host of top athletes, national campers and otherwise, young and old, figure on the list, revealing how deep the rot is. Interestingly, the athletes were tested by domestic and international (Athletics Integrity Unit) agencies. The high-profile cases indicate that the National Anti-Doping Agency has started testing top athletes and is serious about catching offenders. However, this is just the start.

National Sports Federations, too, must also ensure that not just the athletes but the coaches and other support staff are made accountable. Another recent trend is the use of banned EPO (Erythropoietin), which produces more blood cells and helps endurance athletes reduce fatigue and recover faster. In a recent provisionally suspended list of NADA, there were four EPO cases involving random athletes. And then, there is the use of human growth hormone (HGH). This can be alarming for substances that don't usually have a high number of testing.

Doping has been a dominant theme in Indian sports, especially in athletics, weightlifting and power-lifting, but now it appears to have permeated into disciplines like boxing, wrestling and judo. There are a few cases in precision sports, like shooting and archery. With more money and job opportunities in sports, athletes are taking to methods that are not only banned in sports but are not conducive to their health. India has been on top of the infamous list of the World Anti-Doping Agency for dope offences for quite some time. The NADA has shown intent, but to reduce doping, all stakeholders must come together, especially the athletes and their coaches. The Anti-Doping Bill, which has got Parliament's approval, gives more legal teeth to NADA and its officials. Whether or not it will help reduce doping, only time can tell.

QUICK TAKE

EU ENERGY SECURITY MESS

Last week, the European political community summit in Prague discussed a new security order in Europe to tackle the food and energy crises arising from the Russia-Ukraine conflict. Europe says the security structure will have to exclude Russia, which has taken itself out of the European Community by its expansionist actions. However, a rethink on European energy security or reshaping trans-Atlantic defence minus Russia is complicated, only betraying Europe's worry about its Achilles' heel—Russian gas supplies. Relations between European member-states are so intertwined and interlinked that it's difficult for its geo-strategic environment to accommodate a separate security apparatus.

In a very short period of time, we shall speak of 4G in the same manner that we speak of telegrams and STD calls, both of which are no longer in our lives

WITH 5G HERE, DATA IS THE NEW ALCOHOL

HARISH BIJOOR

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The biggest buzz in our lives in recent weeks has been the 5G auction in India and the Indian government's ability to raise a stupendous ₹1.5 lakh crore out of four telecom players. I call it the JAVA wars. Jio, Airtel, Vodafone-Idea and Adani bid frantically for seven continuous days over 40 rounds of bidding, and emerged with a kitty of 5G airwaves that are set to shape the future of communication in India.

Reliance-Jio led the way with a win of 24,780 MHZ for a whopping ₹88,078 cr. It was followed by Airtel (₹43,084 cr) and Vodafone (₹18,799 cr). The Adani group did their own pick for captive private needs with a ₹212 cr spend. And thus began Version 3.0 of India's telecommunications revolution.

India's telecom history which started in 1850 with the introduction of the cable-telegraph has gone a long way to date. The first fifty years of the 1900s saw the move from cable to wireless to radio-telegraph. 1951 saw the first moves on India's first television transmitter. 1960 brought in the first STD call route.

And then trundled in the optical fiber systems, eventually to the landmark year of 1995 when India saw its first mobile telephone service. I remember those early heady days. I remember carrying my first heavy mobile phone with an antenna attached, and driving (Note: it was not illegal to do it then) through the streets of Bengaluru, enjoying the attention it and I got as a result.

To those of us who have been through the early years of cumbersome communications of the era gone by, what we witness today with 4G is itself a miracle of sorts. Imagine the plight of watching your mother wanting to check on the health of your grandfather in Mumbai, waiting by the landline telephone set for a booked trunk call to come through over a two to three-hour wait. All for a two to three-minute conversation that cost a princely three days of a working woman's salary. Gone are those days. Today, at the press of a speed-dial button, you can speak to who you want and where you want.

In many ways, the 2G to 4G spectrum revolution Indian telecom has seen—has transformed the way we live, the way we work and indeed, the way we play. The tensions of life have eased up a bit, if not a lot.

Today, India is the second largest in the world, both in terms of the number of telephone users as well as in the number of broadband internet users. We are a nation of 'Roti, kapda, makaan and telecom'. And rightly so—the telecom sector accounts for 7% of India's GDP, contributing as many as three million direct jobs to the employment economy.

What's the big change with 5G then? Why are the telcos spending so much on bandwidth? And what's ahead in store? How will it change my life?

The first prognosis I would like to make about the 5G revolution ahead, is by emphasising on the simple fact that we have seen nothing like it before. And when we see it happen, we are going to get excited. It will, however, take its own sweet time to happen. The first phase of the rollout has 13 cities listed across the three major telcos. And in these cities itself, I do believe we will see an earlier and deeper degree of adoption in the business districts as opposed to the non-business hotspots. However, all said and done, high-speed and high quality of communication has a habit of replacing lesser bandwidth formats globally.

5G as we will know it in the immediate future will get us to save time and do things faster than ever before. Imagine the role of 5G and 5G-enabled services in our lives. Imagine a lag-free connectivity without the irritation of buffering and call drops. Imagine internet speeds that are 10X faster than 4G. And imagine further still, the ability for billions of connected devices of every kind—from your refrigerator to your car to your air-conditioner to your motorcycle—to seamlessly connect with one another and share data in real-time and apply it to daily life. If somebody said "Data is the new oil", I would say it was, once upon a time. Today, data is the new alcohol. The heady alcohol of the superspeed connectivity that the future generation of consumers will live in and take for granted in the future.

In a very short period of time, we shall speak of 4G in the same manner that we speak of telegrams and STD calls, both of which are no longer in our lives. Expect immediately then the ability to download very heavy and loaded content on your mobile phone in seconds. And expect to make those HD video calls to all and sundry. Expect big traction in the spaces of education, healthcare delivery, agriculture (including sensor-based farming), manufacturing and e-governance for sure.

5G will bring cloud gaming to center-stage attention. You will need no gaming console anymore. 5G will connect ambulances to offer speedier and better medical care. It will also track cattle on the farms, look after manufacturing on the shop floor, help you spray insecticide on your crop and do all of the 856-odd listed applications written as an ode to it.

Everything is going to get seamlessly connected, seamlessly tracked, and in the bargain, you are on a tracking grid you can't escape anymore. Every step you take is tracked and every breath you breathe is analysed—anonymously of course, with anonymised data as the norm. In many ways, you and I in the era of 5G will be contributing to the whole in a more real manner than ever before.

We are parts of the data that will paint the picture of the whole. No one will be able to tell which part of the picture you are, but without you and I, the picture will be incomplete.

Must I then close with Rumi? "You are not just a drop in the ocean. You are the entire ocean in a drop!" And 5G will make that possible!

KANDASWAMI SUBRAMANIAN

Served in the Ministry of Finance, GOI, and retired as Joint Secretary

The chiefs of central banks are a haughty, self-assured lot who will not brook outsiders' interference in their affairs. Preserving autonomy was one of the central tenets of financial reforms. Their reputation was fortified by the record of Paul Volcker, the legendary chair of the US Federal Reserve, who fought and tamed raging inflation. Volcker is a role model for embattled Fed chiefs.

No wonder current chair Jerome Powell wants to be regarded as the second coming of Paul Volcker. (Think of Powell as Volcker's wannabe second coming, John Authors, Bloomberg, September 21, 2022). Sadly, for Powell, the present circumstances are different.

After the early eighties, when Volcker had slain the inflation ghost, three decades of financial stability followed. Those were also the years marked by financialisation, the spread of multinational corporations, and the Southern tilt of the global economy, especially the rise of China.

Globalisation ordained by the WTO, IMF, WB, etc., tended to benefit the advanced western countries more than the emerging economies. Price stability across the globe was one of the unstated benefits. Not only were the southern supplies, mostly consumer goods, cheap, but they also helped to fill "output" gaps.

Surprisingly, all the credit for bringing out price stability was laid at the doors of monetary policy tools based on "neo-liberal" economics and its offshoot "the efficient market hypothesis".

They advocated the need for an independent central bank unfettered by others. The central banks, in turn, were clutching at their tools, viz. interest rate and liquidity, as immutable magic wands to tame inflation. They built around these concepts sophisticated models based on algorithms. Indeed, monetary policy had become exotic but lost touch with reality.

The great financial crisis of 2008 further exposed the failure and the inefficacy of the tools at their command. A sound monetary policy requires a deeper understanding of financial markets.

As Prof. Joseph Stiglitz, Nobel Laureate, explained in his C D Deshmukh lecture delivered at the Reserve Bank of India, "Most of the propositions that have been at the centre of the monetary policy for the past quarter of a century need to be rethought."

In our earlier column, The dragon at the doors of the US (November 26, 2021), we wondered whether "he (Powell) could steer the central bank in choppy waters". He believed inflation was "transient" and faded in the early days. Later, he did refer to the problems created by supply bottlenecks. By summer, there was the hope of an easier monetary policy or what was described as "Fed pivot". It did not come about. However, the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) announced an increase of 75 basis points and more increases to follow. At the Jackson Hole Economic Symposium held in August this year, Powell affirmed he would "keep at it", referring to rate increases. As Bloomberg said, those words were borrowed from Volcker.

Interestingly, at the Symposium itself, opinion was highly divided. As Financial Times reported, "Central bankers face a more challenging economic landscape than they have experienced in decades and will find it harder to root out high inflation…" (Global economy faces the greatest challenge in decades, policymakers warn, August 29, 2021).

WIKI COMMONS

> If it was unfortunate that the Covid epidemic preceded inflation, it was equally, if not more, unfortunate that the invasion of Ukraine by Russia followed it. The US sanctions on Russia were the last nails on globalisation

Normally, the annual Jackson Hole symposia are occasions for self-congratulation by central bankers. This time around, it was marked by gloomy and confused forebodings. We can't blame them. This time around, inflation had several bafflingly interconnected roots.

If it was unfortunate that the Covid-19 epidemic preceded inflation, it was equally, if not more, unfortunate that the invasion of Ukraine by Russia followed it. The US sanctions on Russia were the last nails on globalisation. What many analysts fail to reckon with are the policies of President Trump to decouple the US from China and the relentless "trade war" that he waged. Trump might have weakened China in some respects, but in the process, he weakened his own country in several ways. Many current inflationary surges could be traced to Trump's adventurist policies vis-à-vis China. He had underestimated the resilience of China, even as he underestimated the US' own dependence on China, especially the supply chains for high-tech components.

There were several shocks from the supply and demand sides. The peculiarity of the Covid-19 pandemic was that both supply and demand shrank, a phenomenon not witnessed historically.

When inflation reared its head, it baffled policymakers, particularly the Fed. Researchers attributed it to the income support given to combat the epidemic. Later, attention shifted to bottlenecks, shipment delays, port congestion, etc. A research paper by the Richmond Federal Reserve covers the issues very well. (Supply Chain Disruptions, Inflation, and the Fed, John Mullin, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Third Quarter 2022).

The critical role played by supply chains was not grasped in the early months of the surge. Those chains were set up mainly in China by MNCs. A large value supply of components was ensured with all the assurance of quality, delivery, etc. These structures came under attack by Trump. In due course, the adverse impact came to the fore and affected the supply of critical components, especially in microelectronics such as chips. Chips are embedded in most manufacturing ranging from automobiles to aeronautics to spacecraft. There is a scramble for chip fabrication. It may take many years before they begin their supplies. Surely, the price will be higher, and the flexibility of supply chains will be lost for good. This is an aspect of deglobalisation and as Rana Foroohar puts it, "A deglobalising world will be an inflationary one." When Volcker applied the rate ferociously, he didn't have to face these issues, and all the companies were US-based.

There are three issues which limit Powell's ability to raise interest rates:

1. The hardening of the dollar rate depreciates most currencies, which could destabilise the markets and developing countries.
2. The global debt hag and excessive interest rates could lead to defaults and/or bankruptcy.
3. It would lead to a recession and take years to recover.

Jerome Powell cannot imitate Paul Volcker. This time it is different.

Miracles do happen

Santwana Bhattacharya has presented a balanced view of the Bharat Jodo Yatra in her column, Politics as a yatra without end (October 9). People have been divided on the lines of caste, community, creed and religion as part of the ruling dispensation's agenda to stay in power. Rahul's yatra is one undertaken with a sincerity to reunite people. As we find absolute honesty in his mission, there is every possibility of divine intervention to save the otherwise peace-loving people of India from the clutches of divisive-minded elements.

Sri Aurobindo's nationalism

Apropos of "New Nationalism" and India's renaissance (Oct 10). The column depicts how nationalists were branded as extremists for the benefit of the moderates. Sri Aurobindo's "new nationalism" never advocated violence or lawlessness. In fact, the idea was for the law of the nation to be put in place. Sri Aurobindo's vision has relevance even today.

The passing of former Uttar Pradesh CM Mulayam Singh Yadav is a great loss to his party. 22 pledges, one resignation

Apropos of AAP minister quits as pledge row snowballs (Oct 10). Rajendra Pal Gautam should have by now understood the sensitivities and political implications of his participation in the Buddhist mass conversion event. His being part of an event where the 22 pledges were recited has irked many. Now, AAP's Gujarat prospects are hanging by a thread!

Gross medical negligence

Apropos of Scissors in woman's stomach: MCH refutes allegation of lapses (Oct 10). I am very shocked to read about what happened to Harshina. Such news is bound to instill fear in patients. After proper investigation, she ought to be financially compensated for her suffering. Such incidents make people lose hope in doctors. This is just not correct.

Language woes

This is with reference to We should do away with English, says Bahuguna Joshi (Oct 10). Although Hindi and regional languages are native to India, we must not prioritise them so much. If we want to get a job abroad, English is a requirement.

Leave it to people what they want to improve in their traditions. If we stop doing politics in the name of religion, then our path will be easy.

An emergency has been imposed in Gujarat due to the fear of Kejriwal. Our leaders are arrested, bulldozers are used at the venue. This is the fear of BJP.

AAP will be a non-starter in Gujarat, Himachal polls: Thakur

IN a wide-ranging interview on subjects including politics and media, Union Minister for Information and Broadcasting, and Youth Affairs and Sports Anurag Thakur says that the Aam Aadmi Party would be a non-starter in the upcoming Assembly elections in Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh. Excerpts from an interview with Parvez Sultan:

Verbatim

Opposition parties, particularly Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS), formerly known as Telangana Rashtra Samithi (TRS) and Nitish Kumar-led JD(U), have begun parleys to cobble up an alliance to take on BJP in 2024 Lok Sabha elections. Though they have a tough task on hand — choosing a widely accepted leader to be projected as Prime Ministerial candidate. There are a couple of aspirants among them. Will they be able to come on a common platform/reach a consensus?

They should worry about their states first. Nitish Kumar Ji has lost his political ground in Bihar. Whatever seats he got in Bihar Assembly elections were because of the National Democratic Alliance (NDA). Today, there is a sense of anger and frustration in people of Bihar for what he did. Today, maniacs are roaming free on the road and shooting people. The Jungle Raaj has returned.

When Telangana was created, it had a revenue surplus budget. Due to Chief Minister K Chandrasekar Rao's corrupt and senseless policies, Telangana has delved into a revenue deficit budget. Today, every child born in Telangana carries ₹1.25 lakh debt on its head. People of Telangana are quite unhappy and dejected with him. When our workers agitate against him, he becomes Nizam and tries to crush our voice by force and false arrests. But have vowed to put an end to his corrupt and minority-appeasing regime. KCR is going to become a political tourist after the Assembly elections as he will have no other job.

AAP seems to have shifted its focus from Himachal Pradesh to Gujarat? Is the party gaining ground in the state?

In a democracy every party is free to contest elections. However, the flight of AAP has crashed in Himachal Pradesh even before the take-off. The whole Himachal Unit of AAP has joined the BJP. They cannot even gather a crowd of 200 people in Himachal. People are well aware of the deteriorating law and order situation in the neighbouring Punjab under the AAP Government. Whether it was cold-blooded broad daylight murder of Singer Sidhu Moose-Wala or open gun fights in Patiala, the failure of Bhagwant Mann-led AAP government to tackle the law and order situation in the sensitive "border state' has not gone down well with the people. The bubble of AAP has already burst in Delhi Liquor Scam and its real face stands thoroughly exposed. AAP contested 403 seats in Uttar Pradesh and lost deposits on all seats, it contested all assembly seats in Uttarakhand and could not even win a seat. They could not open their account in four states...they will not be able to open their account in Himachal as well. On the other hand, the BJP has done excellent work in Himachal. Development had taken place in the state only because of the double engine government of the BJP. The leadership of PM Modi was honest, hardworking and people oriented and that is why BJP could do in just eight years what the Congress has not done even in 60 years.

The people of Gujarat also clearly understand the politics of Jhooth, Bhram & Bhay (lies, delusion and fear). Gujarat has seen unprecedented progress under the leadership of Shri Narendra Modi ji, first as CM and now as the Prime Minister (PM). Today, PM Modi's leadership and Aatmanirbhar Bharat's vision is gaining ground in every sector in the country. Gujaratisno exception. The people of Gujarat have unflinching faith in the Honourable PM & the BJP. I have full confidence that the people of Gujarat & Himachal will vote for a double engine government just like they did in Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand. BJP will perform even better than the previous elections, in both Himachal and Gujarat.

Congress is expected to get a new president or first non-Gandhi chief of the party? Its state units have passed resolutions backing Rahul Gandhi as Congress president. Election will take place or is this exercise merely a farce?

It is the internal matter of the Congress party. Whoever they choose, it's their choice. However, while the 'Prince' of Congress is faking a Bharat Jodo Yatra', his 'subjects' in Rajasthan have embarked on a Congress Todo Yatra. One thing I can say with authority is that People have absolute trust in PM Modi's vision and leadership which has earned credibility through delivery.

Off late, we have seen ED and CBI becoming 'more' active. They are conducting raids in cases mainly related to Opposition leaders? These are the allegations. What is your take on this?

The Modi government's policy on corruption is of zero tolerance. Investigative agencies have been given free hand for probing corruption. Why are some people frightened, if they have not committed any crime?

The government is planning to amend the Press and Registration of Books Act. What's the idea behind the proposed changes?

The plan is to make the whole registration process online and hassle free. The present Press and Registration of Books Act came into being in 1867, during the colonial era. It has provisions that criminalise violation of Act. Therefore, in line with government's efforts to infuse 'ease of doing business', the Information & Broadcasting Ministry is moving towards decriminalising certain provisions like it was done by the government in the Companies Act.

SP stares at future without guidance of party patriarch

NAMITA BAJPAI @New Delhi

WITH the demise of its patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav, the Samajwadi Party has lost the single unifying force who had kept the ranks and files of the party and the family together except a few rumblings when the feud between his son Akhilesh Yadav and younger brother Shivpal intensified, leading the latter to part ways and float his own outfit. Moreover, with dominant political ambitions, younger daughter-in-law Aparna Yadav too changed the track and joined the saffron bandwagon just ahead of 2022 Assembly elections.

Now, Akhilesh has the bigger responsibility of keeping his flock intact while ensuring the restoring party's pride which it used to enjoy under his father.

The demise of 'Netaji' has left Yadav exposed to the vagaries of politics with no one around to give a fatherly advice when situations will demand.

LIFE AT A GLANCE

The veteran Samajwadi leader was born to Murti Devi and Sughar Singh Yadav on 22 November 1939 in Saifai village, Etawah district, Uttar Pradesh.

He married twice. His first wife was Malti Devi who died in 2003 after a prolonged medical illness. Former Uttar Pradesh CM, Akhilesh Yadav is the only child of Mulayam Singh Yadav from his first wife Malati Devi.

Mulayam in many ways was regarded as a protege of socialist icon Ram Manohar Lohia who played a key role in grooming him

He founded the Samajwadi Party in 1992.

He was elected Member of the Legislative Assembly, Uttar Pradesh 10 times

He was elected member of Lok Sabha on 7 occasions between 1996 and 2019

Netaji served as the Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh for the terms from 1989 to 1991, 1993 to 1995, and 2003 to 2007.

He also served as Minister of Defence in the Government of India during 1996-98.

He currently represents the Mainpuri constituency in the Lok Sabha.

He is survived by two sons Akhilesh Yadav and Prateek Yadav

Return to talks, says India as Russia goes into revenge mode

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

INDIA on Monday expressed its deep concern over the escalation of the Ukraine conflict and called for an immediate cessation of hostilities as Russia launched its biggest air strike since the war started, killing at least 11 people and injuring dozens more.

"Escalation of hostilities is in no one's interest. We urge urgent return to the path of diplomacy and dialogue. India stands ready to support all such efforts aimed at de-escalation," said Arindam Bagchi, spokesperson, Ministry of External Affairs.

In view of rising tensions, the Indian embassy in Kyiv on Monday issued an avisory asking Indian citizens to avoid all non-essential travel to and within Ukraine and asked them to strictly follow the safety and security guidelines issued by the local authorities.

Russia's latest attack on multiple Ukrainian cities including Kyiv is seen as retaliation for the recent explosion of a key bridge linking Russia to Crimea. Moscow has held Ukraine responsible for the blast, which damaged parts of the 19-km bridge across the Kerch Strait linking the Black Sea and the Sea of Azov.

"The Kiev regime, by its actions, has actually put itself on the same level as international terrorist groups, and with the most odious of those. It is simply no longer possible to leave crimes of this kind without retaliation," said Russian President Vladimir Putin in an online broadcast.

DoT invites oppn views on telecom bill

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

IN a first of its kind outreach, the Department of Telecommunications has invited Opposition leaders for their suggestions on the new draft Indian Telecommunication Bill 2022. The Opposition leaders are being directly invited by Minister of Electronics and IT Ashwini Vaishnaw to his office. Sharing this with TNIE, he said, "We are speaking to almost all prominent leaders of the Opposition and other leaders over the newly proposed telecom bill and will take their suggestions."

On Monday, senior leader Trinamool Congress (TMC) and MP, Rajya Sabha, Mahua Moitra, visited the ministry office. The TMC leader also raised many points on various provisions of the Bill and her initial doubts were also addressed to. "The bill has been drafted in simple language so that anyone is able to understand its provisions. It is being prepared to make the telecom sector consumer-and people-friendly", the minister said.

ED moves SC against bail granted to Deshmukh in money-laundering case

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate has moved Supreme Court against Bombay HC's order granting bail to former Maharashtra Home Minister Anil Deshmukh in a money-laundering case that is being investigated by it.

A bench led by CJI UU Lalit directed for listing the probe agency's petition before the bench headed by Justice DY Chandrachud for Tuesday pursuant to the mentioning made by Solicitor General Tushar Mehta. While granting him bail, the HC had directed Deshmukh to pay ₹1 lakh as bail bond. To enable ED to file an appeal, the bench had however stayed the implementation of its bail order till October 12. This meant that Deshmukh would continue to remain in judicial custody in Arthur Road prison since he is also being investigated by the CBI in a corruption case. The HC on October 4 had observed that "two components of credits" in the account of his family trust were not "proceeds of crime".

The bench had also considered Deshmukh's age and the fact that he had no criminal antecedents.

On September 26, SC bench led by Justices DY Chandrachud had directed the Bombay HC to consider and dispose of Maharashtra's former minister Anil Deshmukh's plea seeking bail in money laundering case being investigated by the ED. Noting that Deshmukh's bail application is listed before Justice NJ Jamadar of the Bombay HC, the SC granted him the liberty to mention his application before a single judge.

The counsel for Govansh Sewa Sadan said that cow's urine and dung is used for agricultural purposes.

Mulayam, with some reservations

SANTWANA BHATTACHARYA @New Delhi

A personal anecdote to help place Mulayam Singh Yadav, the man, his politics, the contradictions in those politics, and the landscape where he had to act these through. The scene is from one of those days in the 2000s when the Women's Reservation Bill was in jeopardy. Mulayam had been one of its most cussed opponents for years, and his hostility was undimmed. He and Lalu Yadav were standing as the last barriers even on this instance. A group of irate women parliamentarians and activists — Shabana Azmi and Brinda Karat among them — trooped up to the third floor of Parliament building, where the Samajwadi Party supremo's office was situated.

They made their case agitatedly and demanded to know why he was opposing women's reservation. He spoke in disarming, near-pleading tones. "Where I come from, if I go to an MLA's house, I'm offered tea from behind a ghunghat. I have not even seen any of the wives of my MLAs, beyond their hands and bangles. If I say yes to women's reservation, it will be suicidal for parties like mine! Where will we even get candidates?"

From there, Mulayam of course lived to see the day where he and his own daughter-in-law, Dimple Yadav, were members of the same Lok Sabha. But the irony of a man identified with reservation policies being against reservations for another disenfranchised section — that is only one of the ironies that frames the man.

(He partly resolved that later by seeking a quota within a quota.) A socialist who moved towards concentration of power would be another.

These are not exactly tangential entries in a long career, but as a Lohiaite, Mulayam's core politics was liberatory. The Delhi media's urban lens was always firmly in place when they prefaced any description of Mulayam by recalling his young days as a wrestler: it fitted their idea of an earthy politician, and also a scrappy one. For one who helped break caste hegemony in deeply feudal UP, and dared to challenge Mandir with Mandal, it was in the end an image trap whose pincer-grip he could never quite escape.

Hate speech: SC gives 3 wks to activist to present 'proof'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE SC granted three weeks time to activist Shachi Nelli to produce before court transcripts of contents of interview wherein seer Yati Narsinghanand had made abhorrent remarks against the SC and Constitution. A bench of Justices Dinesh Maheshwari and Bela Trivedi in their order said, "On being enquired about the transcription of the contents of the video carrying the statement, counsel seeks time. List after 3 weeks." Nelli had filed contempt plea in SC pursuant to receipt of former AG KK Venugopal's consent in January 2022.

The Hindu seer in an interview given to Vishal Singh in January 2022 had said, "Those who believe in the Supreme Court of India will die a dog's death."

On being asked about the court proceedings in the Haridwar hate speech case, Yati Narshinghanand went on to state that "We have no trust in the Supreme Court of India and the Constitution. The Constitution will consume the 100 crore Hindus of this country. Those who believe in this Constitution will be killed."

2 jumbos die, 1 injured after being hit by Rajdhani Exp

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR
@Guwahati

TWO elephants, including a calf, were killed after being hit by Rajdhani Express in Assam. Another sub-adult elephant was injured in the incident, which occurred on Sunday midnight at Kharikatia near Mariani in Jorhat district of upper Assam.

The elephants had strayed out of the Hoollongapar Gibbon Sanctuary, 5 km away from the site of the incident. While one of the slain elephants was 22 years old, the other was aged 10 months.

The forest department said the railway authorities were alerted about the movement of the jumbos.

"The site is outside the normal speed restriction zone. Nevertheless, our staff on duty did alert the railway authorities," Assam's Principal Chief Conservator of Forests MK Yadava told this newspaper.

However, a senior railway official said the accident occurred at a notified elephant corridor where there is a 50 kmph speed restriction. "The loco pilot had applied the emergency brake but the train did not stop before hitting the elephants," the official said.

The local residents expressed anger as the veterinary doctors arrived several hours later to treat the injured elephant. A team of forest officials and police personnel were at the site, monitoring her health and movement. She covered a distance, crawling.

"We are in the field, giving treatment to her. We gave antibiotics with food. She has eaten it," Divisional Forest Officer Nandha Kumar told this newspaper from the site.

He said the animal was not tranquilised as the vets said it might collapse if it has internal bleeding and is tranquilised.

"We have to keep her under observation for the next 24-48 hours. If she is not able to walk even after 48 hours, we will have to tranquilise her to treat her properly," Kumar said.

PM to unveil Mahakal Corridor in Ujjain today

Temple corridor comes 1 yr ahead of MP polls and 10 months after Kashi Vishwanath Corridor was inaugurated

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi will on Tuesday unveil the first phase of Mahakal Temple Corridor Project at Ujjain in Madhya Pradesh. The inauguration comes 10 months after the Kashi Vishwanath Dham Corridor project was opened in the PM's parliamentary constituency of Varanasi in Uttar Pradesh.

While the Varanasi inauguration happened just three months before the crucial 2022 UP Assembly polls, the grand event in Ujjain is happening around 13 months ahead of polls scheduled in the BJP-ruled central Indian state.

The Mahakal Lok (first phase) Corridor is 946 metre long, which is almost four times the Kashi Vishwanath Dham Corridor of Varanasi.

One of the marvels of the Ujjain Smart City project, the Mahakal Lok's first phase has been completed in four years.

The first phase of the two-part project includes statues and murals narrating the life of Lord Shiva, including 25 mythological tales associated with him. Several places in the complex have been beautified, including the Mahakaleshwar Vatika, Mahakaleshwar Path, Shiv Avtar Vatika, Rudrasagar Lake front, Dharamshala Complex and Pravachan Hall.

The premises will have a Vedic Vatika, a yoga Kendra, chanting hall, shops, and a food zone having restaurant facilities. Special provision has been made for parking of over 600 vehicles near the Triveni Museum.

The new corridor will have four entrances — Pinaki, Shankh, Nandi and Neelkanth Gates. It will have 75 grand statues of gods, goddesses and mythological characters, with heights ranging between nine ft and 18 ft.

The visit to Ujjain on Tuesday will be Narendra Modi's second visit to Madhya Pradesh in less than a month. On September 17, Modi had celebrated his 72nd birthday by inaugurating the world's first inter-continental Cheetah translocation project, through the release of eight Cheetahs at Kuno National Park in Sheopur district.

'Resolved Kashmir issue by following Patel's values'

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

LAUNCHING a veiled attack on Pandit Nehru, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday said that while Sardar Patel resolved issues of merger of erstwhile princely states, Kashmir was handled by "one person" and the issue remained unresolved.

Modi was addressing a Jan Vishwas Sammelan of BJP in Anand district of Gujarat, ahead of the Assembly polls in the state due to take place this year-end. Modi added that he was able to resolve the long-pending Kashmir issue as he is walking in the footsteps of Sardar Patel.

"Sardar saheb persuaded all the princely states to merge with India. But another person handled this one issue of Kashmir," Modi said, without naming Nehru. "Many times people say that Modi does good work in Delhi. Don't they say so? It is not Modi who is doing it. As I am following the footsteps of Sardar saheb, I have values of the land of Sardar and that was the reason I resolved the problem of Kashmir and paid true tributes to Sardar Patel," Modi said.

Gehlot's wife now a singer on YouTube

Amid the ongoing political turmoil in the Rajasthan Congress, Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot's wife Sunita Gehlot has become a singer on video platform YouTube. On September 29, she launched her channel and uploaded the Rajasthani folk song 'shubh ghadiyaan'. This was the same day Gehlot went to Delhi and took responsibility for the boycott of the Congress Legislative Party meeting by his supporters, and asked for forgiveness of the party high command. Sunita's song is being liked a lot on social media. Usually, CM Gehlot's wife avoids limelight, but this time it is being seen as an exercise to bring Rajasthani folk songs into the mainstream.

CM race: Raje targets Gehlot-Pilot friction

Former Chief Minister Vasundhara Raje has finally commented on the continuing tussle between Ashok Gehlot and Sachin Pilot over the CM's post and said that one faction does not want to leave the chair and the other is adamant on getting it. Raje herself is struggling to remain a potential chief ministerial candidate from the BJP. During her public programmes in Bikaner, the BJP organisation stayed away and Raje is calling it a personal tour. But during the Bikaner tour, Raje held three rallies and gave clear hints that she is very much in the race to be the next CM of the state and that other faces don't matter.

Where did scheme funds go? Centre asks Punjab govt

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE Centre has asked the Aam Aadmi Party-led Punjab government to return the unspent portion of the central share of ₹191.58 crore given to the state under the Post Matric Scholarship Scheme as the state government has failed to provide the utilisation certificate for the same to the central government.

It has been almost two years since the state government was given this amount by the Centre but the former has not shared any details of where the money has been spent. The Centre wrote a letter in this regard to the state government on August 30. However, the state government has not responded or deposited the money yet.

"It is informed that central share of ₹191.58 crore was released to the state government under Post Matric Scholarship Scheme (SC) for the year 2021-22. However payment of central share was released directly to be beneficiaries during the year 2021-22," Parveen Kumar Thind, Director, Department of Social Justice and Empowerment, wrote in a letter sent to the director of the Department of Social Justice, Empowerment & Minorities of the Punjab government. "In this regard it is to inform that this department has not received updated utilization certificates against the release made in the year 2021-22. In view of the above state government is requested to kindly deposit the unspent amount (if any) in the consolidated fund of India and send the updated utilization certificates to this department at the earliest," the letter added.

Before coming to power in the state, the AAP had last year held statewide protests over the alleged multi-crore post matric scholarship scam.

In July this year, Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann had ordered a probe into the alleged irregularities in the scheme that had surfaced during the previous Congress regime in the state.

300 cattle seized in Bengal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Kolkata

AS many as 22 trucks carrying cattle were seized in Purulia late on Sunday night. The seizure happened even as the ruling TMC is facing embarrassment after its strongman Anubrata Mondal was arrested by the CBI in a cattle smuggling case three months ago.

Over 300 animals were seized and 40 people were arrested on charges of transporting the bovines without any valid papers, police said. Initial probe revealed that the consignment was going to Murshidabad district from where it had to be smuggled into Bangladesh.

"The seizure and arrests were made at Hura in Purulia. At first, five trucks were intercepted. During the interrogation of the accused, we learnt that more trucks were on their way. We then put up barricades along the state highway, and intercepted the other trucks," said a police officer.

Investigation revealed that the animals were procured from Darbhanga in Bihar. "Organised rackets are involved in transporting cattle from Bihar and Uttar Pradesh to Bengal. The consignments of bovines are delivered to Bangladeshi smugglers in districts like Malda, Murshidabad and Nadia districts," the police officer added.

Sec 144 imposed as communal clashes break out in Kolkata

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

RESTRICTIONS on assembly and movement of people have been imposed in parts of Kolkata following communal violence on Sunday night. Section 144 of the CrPC has been imposed in the city's Mominpur and Ekbalpore areas for three days from Monday, barring the gathering of four or more people, rallies and demonstrations.

Clashes between two communities broke out in Kolkata's Port area over the issue of displaying communal flags on the occasion of Milad-un-Nabi. Both the groups pelted stones and hurled bottles at each other, damaging several vehicles. Incidents of bomb throwing and vandalism were also reported. Several shops were torched. Five policemen, including two IPS officers, were injured after being attacked by the mob.

Police sources said 36 persons were arrested on Monday over the violence.

BJP MLA and Leader of Opposition Suvendu Adhikari wrote a letter to Union Home Minister Amit Shah and West Bengal Governor La. Ganesan demanding immediate action. He also urged the home ministry to deploy central forces in the violence-hit areas.

> As usual, this time also, Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee is not taking any action against those responsible and they have been given a free hand.
> Sukanta Majumdar, West Bengal BJP president

A large number of police personnel and contingents of Rapid Action Force have been deployed in the areas.

Adhikari alleged that power supply to the trouble-torn area was disrupted for three hours on Sunday night. "Power supply was snapped deliberately to help a community to unleash terror. Taking advantage of the darkness, Hindus were attacked," he said. Adhikari also went to Lalbazar police headquarters and met Police Commissioner Vineet Goyal.

Joint Commissioner of Police (crime) Murli Dhar said the trouble started on Saturday over displaying of flags of a group. "We arrested two persons immediately after the incident and sorted out the issue. The situation worsened on Sunday night when one group staged demonstration in front of a local police station and the other group attacked them. Soon, the violence spread and when intervened, police were also attacked. Four cases were lodged and the arrested persons were charged with spreading communal discord," he added.

Kashmir to get connected by train with rest of India next year: L-G

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

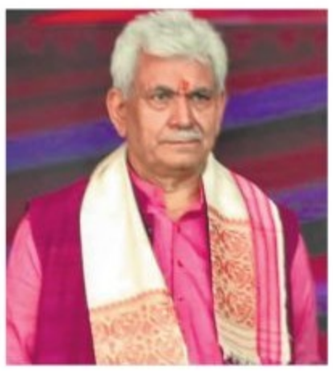
KASHMIR will be connected with the rest of the country through railway link from next year, Lt Governor Manoj Sinha announced on Monday.

"Connectivity has remained a big issue in Jammu and Kashmir. However, since August 5, 2019 due to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the central government, J&K has witnessed development in connectivity, whether it is rail, road or air travel," Sinha said while addressing the fourth Heli-India Summit at Srinagar.

He announced that Kashmir will be connected with the rest of the country through a railway link next year.

"The railway link will connect Kashmir with Kanyakumari," Sinha said.

Work on 272km Udhampur-Srinagar-Baramulla Railway Link (USBRL) is currently going on. The rail line has been laid on three sections of 25km from Udhampur to Katra, 18 km from Banihal to Qazigund and 118 km from Qazigund to Baramulla and trains also operate on them on a daily basis.



Work on the 111km railway line from Katra to Banihal, which is a difficult stretch due to its topography, is also going on at present. Of the 111km stretch, 58km will pass through a tunnel.

The railway stretch from Katra to Banihal would be having the world's highest railway bridge over River Chenab at Khour region of Reasi district at a height of 359 metre from the bed level. The bridge will be higher than Qutub Minar and Eiffel Tower.

The USBRL would provide all-weather rail connectivity to Kashmir with the rest of India for the first time since 1947. It will reduce Kashmir's dependency on Srinagar-Jammu highway.

The Valley has so far been dependent on the 271km national highway, which is the only road link connecting Kashmir with the rest of the country for supplies. The highway remains closed for traffic for days together in winter due to heavy snowfall.

According to officials, the all-weather rail connectivity would boost travel to the Valley and will act as a catalyst towards accelerated development, progress and prosperity in the region.

Pawar, BJP leader come together for Mumbai cricket body polls

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI
@ Mumbai

NCP chief Sharad Pawar and BJP leader Ashish Shelar may be divided by political ideology, but they seem to be bound by their love for sport. Both Pawar and Shelar have come together in a joint panel to fight the Mumbai Cricket Association (MCA) elections against former Indian cricketer Sandeeep Patil. The elections are scheduled to be held on Oct 20.

Shelar has thrown in the hat for the presidential poll against Patil. It is after 11 years that elections will be held for the post between a politician and a former Indian cricketer. In 2011, former Indian skipper Dilip Vengsarkar had lost the elections to former Maharashtra CM Vilasrao Deshmukh.

From the Pawar-Shelar panel, Ajinkya Rane is contesting for the secretary's post while Arman Mallik is in the fray for the treasurer's position. NCP MLA and ex-minister Jitendra Awhad and Shiv Sena leader Milind Narvekar have also filed their nominations for the apex council membership from the Pawar-Shelar camp.

Sources said that Amol Kale, who is a close associate of deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis, is also eyeing the president's post.

"Kale was even doing lobbying with Devendra Fadnavis' help but the Supreme Court ruling allowing MLA and MPs to contest the cricket board office bearers elections pushed him back while Shelar announced his candidature with Sharad Pawar's help. So Pawar and Shelar came together to corner Fadnavis' possible presidential candidate," a source said.

Pawar and Shelar share a cordial relationship. "In 2011, Shelar became the MCA vice president with the help of Pawar. A senior NCP leader was going to file his nomination, but after the BJP leader's call, Pawar dropped his party person and included Shelar in his panel, making him MCA VP," a BJP leader said.

Will return to Valley if safety assured: Staff

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Srinagar

EVEN as the administration has made it mandatory to record biometric attendance of all employees for drawing their salaries, the Kashmiri Pandit workers recruited under the PM's job package, who are refusing to attend office since May 12, have ruled out returning to the militancy-hit Valley till the government assures them of security.

"The order is a decision taken in hurry. Had the Divisional Commissioner assured us of security, we would have returned to the Valley and rejoined our duties," Ranjan Jotshi, vice president, All Migrant Displaced Employees Association Kashmir, said. He added that without this assurance, the employees won't return to Kashmir and will continue to press for relocation outside the Valley.

11 KILLED IN FRESH RUSSIAN BOMBING OF UKRAINE

A profound change on conduct of war: Macron

French President Emmanuel Macron said that Russian air strikes across Ukraine and against civilians on Monday signalled a "profound change" in the conduct of the war. The "deliberate strikes by Russia over the whole of Ukraine's territory and against civilians, it's a profound change in the nature of this war," Macron told reporters during a trip to the Mayenne region of France. British Foreign Secretary James Cleverly tweeted that "Russia's firing of missiles into civilian areas of Ukraine is unacceptable." Ukrainian Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba broke off his Africa tour and headed back to Ukraine, tweeting that the attacks represented "terror on peaceful Ukrainian cities."

KYIV

RUSSIA unleashed a lethal barrage of strikes against multiple Ukrainian cities on Monday, smashing civilian targets including downtown Kyiv, where at least six people were killed amid burnt-out cars and shattered buildings. The onslaught brought back into focus the grim reality of war after months of easing tensions in the capital.

Ukraine's Emergency Service said at least 11 people were killed and 64 wounded across the country in the morning attacks — the biggest and broadest since the early days of the war. Though some missiles apparently targeted energy facilities, others struck civilian areas. Russian President Vladimir Putin said the strikes were in retaliation for what he called Kyiv's "terrorist" actions — a reference to Ukraine's attempts to repel Moscow's invasion forces, including a weekend attack on a key bridge between Russia and the annexed Crimean Peninsula. Putin vowed a "tough" and "proportionate" response should Ukraine carry out further attacks that threaten Russia's security.

"No one should have any doubts about it," he said.

Monday's intense, hours-long assault marked a sudden military escalation in Russia's assault on Ukraine. It came a day after Putin called the explosion Saturday on the huge bridge connecting Russia to its annexed territory of Crimea a "terrorist act" masterminded by Ukrainian special services.

Putin, speaking in a video call with members of Russia's Security Council, said the Russian military launched "precision weapons" from the air, sea and ground to target key energy and military command facilities. But the sustained barrage on major cities hit residential areas and critical infrastructure facilities alike, portending a major surge in the war amid a successful Ukrainian counteroffensive in recent weeks.

The missile strikes marked the biggest and most widespread Russian attacks in months. Putin, whose partial mobilization order earlier this month triggered an exodus of hundreds of thousands of men of fighting age from Russia, stopped short of declaring martial law or a counterterrorism operation as many had expected.

Moscow's war in Ukraine is approaching its eight-month milestone, and the Kremlin has been reeling from humiliating battlefield setbacks in areas of eastern Ukraine it is trying to annex. Blasts struck in the capital's Shevchenko district, a large area in the center of the city that includes the historic old town as well as several government offices, Mayor Vitali Klitschko said.

Some of the strikes hit near the government quarter in the symbolic heart of the capital, where parliament and other major landmarks are located. A glass tower housing offices was significantly damaged, most of its blue-tinted windows blown out. Residents were seen on the streets with blood on their clothes and hands. A young man sat on the ground as a medic wrapped a bandage around his head. A woman with her head bandaged had blood all over the front of her blouse. Several cars were damaged or completely destroyed. AP

TCS says moonlighting against co's core values

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

AT a time when moonlighting or dual employment has emerged as a major issue in the IT industry, TCS during the company's second quarter (Q2) earnings conference, said moonlighting is an ethical issue and it is against the company's core values and culture in general.

TCS CEO Rajesh Gopinathan said, "It is codified in our employment contract that they(employees) are not allowed to work for any other organisation."

Milind Lakkad, Chief Human Resources Officer, TCS, said they have communicated about the company's position on moonlighting to employees. "No action has been taken against employees so far," he said.

Wipro has fired 300 employees recently for moonlighting and Infosys too warned its employees against dual employment.

> We are rostering all of them (staff), across projects. Today, the situation is that one-third of them are coming to office at least twice a week, and this will continue to increase
> Milind Lakkad, chief HR officer, TCS

Lakkad said all seniors are already working from the office. "The remaining staff actually we are rostering all of them, across projects. Today, the situation is that one-third of them are coming to the office at least twice a week, and this will continue to increase," he said.

TCS, which has onboarded 35,000 freshers in the first two quarters of this fiscal, said it has honoured all the job offers that it had made. Its net addition during the second quarter was 9,840 employees. The company will be recruiting 10,000-12,000 freshers in the coming two quarters.

However, IT services attrition was 21.5% on the last 12 months' basis. With normalising wage expectations and talent supply catching up across the industry, the company expects attrition to start to taper down in the second half of this fiscal.

NOBEL PRIZE

Bernanke shares Nobel for research on banks

PTI @ New Delhi

Former US Federal Reserve Chair Ben Bernanke, who put his academic expertise on the Great Depression to work reviving the American economy after the 2007-2008 financial crisis, won the Nobel Prize in economic sciences along with two other U.S.-based economists for their research into the fallout from bank failures.

Bernanke was recognized Monday along with Douglas W. Diamond and Philip H. Dybvig. The Nobel panel at the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences in Stockholm said the trio's research had shown 'why avoiding bank collapses is vital.'

With their findings in the early 1980s, the laureates laid the foundations for regulating financial markets, the panel said.

'Financial crises and depressions are kind of the worst thing that can happen to the economy," said John Hassler of the Committee for the Prize in Economic Sciences. 'These things can happen again. And we need to have an understanding of the mechanism behind those and what to do about it. And the laureates this year provide that.' Bernanke, 68, who was Fed chair from early 2006 to early 2014 and is now with the Brookings Institution in Washington, examined the Great Depression of the 1930s, showing the danger of bank runs ' when panicked people withdraw their savings ' and how bank collapses led to widespread economic devastation. Before Bernanke, economists saw bank failures as a consequence, not a cause, of economic downturns. Diamond, 68, based at the University of Chicago, and Dybvig, 67, who is at Washington University in St. Louis, showed how government guarantees on deposits can prevent a spiralling of financial crises.

Auto sales up 57% this Navaratri, housing sales rise

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AUTO sales witnessed a big surge during the 9-day Navratri period.

According to data released by the Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (FADA), passenger vehicle (PV) sales grew by 70% to 1,10,521 units during Navratri 2022 as against 64,850 units sold during Navratri 2021.

Total vehicle retail sales between September 26 and October 5 (Navratri period) stood at 5,39,227 units, up 57%, when compared with 3,42,459 units sold during Navratri last year. The sales registered this year were also a record, bettering the previous best of 4,66,128 units in Navratri of 2019.

Two-wheeler retail sales, which have been a major laggard for the industry, stood at 3,69,020 units this Navratri, up 52% YoY.

It also grew by 4% when compared with pre-Covid Navratri of 2019. "We now hope that this trend continues till Deepavali so that apart from PV dealers, who will see a decade high during this festive, the two-wheeler dealers also have a good season and hence helps them liquidate their stock, which they have built in anticipation of a good festive," FADA President Manish Raj Singhania said. Housing market, which is hit by multiple interest rate hikes, had a positive beginning to this festive season. "Post the Shraadh period in mid September, sales in festive season beginning Navratri have picked up and are expected to continue for Diwali. This growth is remarkable considering the headwinds of home loan interest rate hikes, which has brought down home purchase affordability by 8% in this rate cycle," Vivek Rathi, Director-Research, Knight Frank India told TNIE. He added, "The strong demand drivers for home ownership and festive offers by developers to lift consumer sentiment and comfort concern on rate hike also helped the market."

Consolidation picks up in cement sector

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

SINCE the entry of billionaire Gautam Adani promoted Adani Group in the cement sector, there seems to be an uptick in bigger players eyeing to acquire smaller players or their manufacturing units to expand output capacity.

India Cements on Monday said it is inking a deal with JSW Cement to divest its entire stake in Springway Mining Pvt Ltd (SMPL) for nearly ₹477 crore. Besides JSW, two of the country's top cement producers- Adani Cement and Ultratech Cement, were also reported in the race to acquire SMPL units located in Madhya Pradesh.

JSW Cement has so far paid ₹373.87 crore as part of the deal and the remaining ₹103 crore will be paid on or before December 31, 2022. As per the Chennai-based India Cements, SMPL has a net worth of ₹14.22 crore and the company had a nil turnover in financial year 2021-22. SMPL, however, owns a limestone bearing land, a key raw material for cement, in Madhya Pradesh's Panna district and is in the process of setting up of a cement plant in the state's Damoh district. This sale by India Cements is aimed towards reducing its debt which stood over ₹3,000 as of March 2022. Adani Group, which has set its eye to become the country's top Cement player by 2030, is in talks to buy the cement businesses of debt-laden Jaypee Group for about ₹5,000 crore. Sources said Adani group is in advanced talks with the management of Jaiprakash Associates and the deal could be announced shortly. The Adanis had recently forayed into the cement sector with the acquisition, pegged at $10 billion, of Ambuja Cements and ACC to become the nation's second-largest cement maker with annual production capacity of 67.5 million tonnes. Jaypee group had sold its cement business to UltraTech.

Output cut by OPEC+ countries may push up India's oil import bill

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

CUT in oil production by OPEC+ countries will increase India's oil import bill, and eventually will increase the cost of transport fuel in the country.

The industry experts also noted that the inflated price of crude in the global market is likely to increase the under recoveries of Indian Oil Marketing Companies (OMCs). "The under-recoveries of OMCs are likely to increase on sale of petrol and diesel. If higher prices are passed on to the consumers, it would lead to higher inflation. Besides this, the oil import bill would increase. There would be some inventory gains for refiners," said Prashant Vasisht, VP and co-Group head at ICRA.

The OPEC+ countries on October 5, 2022, announced to reduce oil production by about 2 million barrels per day to check the oil price in the international market. Following this move, Brent Crude oil, which fell from $127.98 per barrel in March to $82.86 per barrel on 26 September 2022, again picked up to above $90 per barrel. Brent Crude Future on Monday was trading at $97.79 per barrel (IST 8.25PM) and US West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude futures $92.64 per barrel (IST 8.25PM).

"Crude prices increased by over 10% in last one week due to cut in output by OPEC+ members. We are expecting it to test $100 to $102 levels soon," said Anuj Gupta, vice-president, Research, IIFL Securities. Gaurav Moda, India Energy Leader, EY said Indian OMCs are careful about price hikes as well as reductions in line with market dynamics. "Based on this, it is expected that there may be some moderation in domestic fuel prices in due course, not necessarily immediately," he said. India's crude basket, which has come down below $80 per barrel last week, again jumped to $95 per barrel on 7 October 2022. Throughout the year it has averaged above $100 per barrel. India is the third-largest oil consumer in the world, and the country meets 85.5 percent of its crude oil demand from imports as of FY22 (FY22).

Re may breach 83/$ level this week on rising oil prices, hawkish Fed stance

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

INDIAN rupee is soon expected to breach the 83 per US dollar mark on account of rising oil prices and US Federal Reserve's hawkish stance on future key interest rate hikes.

"The rupee hit fresh record lows on rising oil prices, if the oil again jumps above $100 per barrel it will surely ring alarms and further stress the deficits and the rupee. Also, weakness was seen as Fed members continued to sound hawkish with two latest speeches by Fed Chair Jerome Powell signalling that the central bank is likely to raise rates in 2023 also," said Rahul Kalantri, VP Commodities, Mehta Equities.

He added, "This will boost borrowing costs for banks and corporates, which could weigh on economic growth. The RBI has so far intervened sporadically in the market, to taper volatility, may see further intervention also, we expect the USD-INR pair to trade higher in a range of 81.80 to 83.50 for this week." Rupee on Monday pared most of its initial losses and settled 4 paise lower at 82.32 per dollar after the RBI is likely to have intervened in the markets. It had fallen to a record low of 82.6825 in early trades. RBI's regular exercise to sell dollars in the open market to check Rupee's freefall is depleting its forex reserve at a fast pace: a 16% fall at September-end compared to the beginning of the year. Meanwhile, crude oil prices hovered near $97 per barrel on Monday, a surge of about 10% this month alone after OPEC decided to cut output. The dollar index, which gauges the greenbacks strength against a basket of 6 currencies, climbed above 113-levels.

"Looking at the tighter dollar liquidity, hawkish global central banker and foreign fund withdrawal, rupee is expected to trade left against the dollar. Spot USD/INR is having near-term resistance at 82.90 and crossing of the same would pave way for 83.50 while on the downside it could find support around 81.35," Dilip Parmar, Research Analyst, HDFC Securities. India's equity markets too opened with sharp cuts but recovered gradually, supported by IT heavyweights. The Sensex dropped 200.18 points to end at 57,991.11, while the broader Nifty fell 73.65 points to 17,241.00.

eRupee to be additional payment method to users

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

THE Reserve Bank of India, which recently released a concept note on Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC), aims to project the digital rupee as an additional payment avenue to users and not to replace the existing payment systems.

It wants CBDC to complement, rather than replace current forms of money. Also, once introduced, it will be accepted as a medium of payment, legal tender and also as a safe store of value by everyone.

Experts say it can be a new way to make payments, especially in the e-commerce sector. It will be one of the payment avenues to the public if they order anything on e-commerce platforms.

RBI has said that digital rupee will be introduced in a phased manner, and once introduced innovation around the product could expand the choices available. Also, CBDC might have offline capabilities, without which it will not prove to be an attractive and accessible medium of payment for users.

It is expected that every CBDC project will start with a limited scale pilot and would subsequently be scaled up at population scale.

Harish Prasad, MD, Banking Solutions, India, FIS, said the value that the India retail CBDC (e-Rupee) will very likely be to offer a viable alternative to use of physical currency, with nearly the same (or better) levels of convenience, finality (once-and-done), and to an extent anonymity that physical currency transactions offer.

"Physical currency has been used as an exchange of value for centuries, and a retail CBDC such as the e-Rupee can offer similar capabilities except that the bearer may have some sort of lightweight KYC obligations to comply with," he said.

He expects some innovation around the mechanisms of exchanging value using the e-Rupee, such as for instance support for offline payments which can make low-value payments faster and less-frustrating.

RAJINA'S RISE TO THE HALL OF FAME

Hailing from crocodile infested A&N Islands, the kayak athlete has dominated the National Games since 2007

FIROZ MIRZA @Ahmedabad

RAJINA KIRO can well be termed as a National Games veteran as she has won 14 medals including 9 gold at the event so far since the 2007 edition. After winning K1 500m gold and K2 500m bronze on Monday, she will compete in the K1 200m race on Tuesday. Given her show at each Games, she is a favourite to finish on the podium.

More importantly, Rajina had won five gold out of six events she had competed in at the previous edition in Kerala with the only blot, if only that can be said, being her second-placed finish in K1 1000m race.

But it's not easy being Rajina, who hails from Port Blair of Andaman and Nicobar Islands. Rajina was only 13 when she was selected by the Sports Authority of India (SAI) centre at the islands to pursue kayaking. She won her first gold at the sub-junior national in 2000-2001. As she was honing her skills in the sport, crocodiles literally encroached upon the islands including the creeks and beaches post-Tsunami in 2004.

While it restricted their training all these years, it was also one of the reasons why she couldn't train for more than two years since the Covid-19 enforced lockdown in March 2020. "We started training only in July as the boat house was closed. Even if I wish to train alone, I cannot do that as a safety boat is a necessity with crocodiles infesting water. We know the places where they usually are so we pass that portion in a group. So basically, we train in a group for safety purposes and to prevent attack by crocodiles," Rajina told this daily after winning two medals at the Sabarmati Riverfront in Ahmedabad.

Rajina Kiro won a gold and a bronze on Monday, taking her total National Games tally to 14 medals (9 gold)

Srimati Bishnoi, the A&N coach, also echoed the sentiments. Srimati was part of the K4 team which also included Rajina that won silver in 2007 Games. "We get boats only if we have a safety boat. We frequently encounter crocodiles and the frequency increases when the water level is low. If we are in a group, then they do not attack us. Fortunately, it (attack) has never happened," the coach said.

The 38-year-old Rajina is a sub-inspector with A&N police and was busy discharging her duties with the department during the Covid times. "The sporting activities were stopped during the Covid outbreak. The last I played was in January 2020 in the nationals where I bagged three gold and one silver. After that my primary role was looking after our people on islands. Every government employee got busy during this period."

Manipur defeated Odisha to retain women's football title. They won 2-0

Despite not being able to train, she made sure that she stays fit during these two years. "I do yoga and physical exercises like running regularly. I always wanted to compete and that's why I focussed on core exercises to stay fit." Once the National Games were announced, she started training in July. The nationals in August meant she got a tournament ahead of the Games. "At the Uttarakhand nationals, I won 2 gold and 2 silver. I won gold in the K2 500m and 200m and silver in the K1 500m and 200m."

Her father had moved to the islands from Jharkhand as he got a job with the forest department there. Apart from winning over 100 medals at the national events, Rajina had also clinched K4 500m bronze at the Asian Championships. She hopes Indian athletes qualify for Olympics as only sprint distance events offer 12 medals while the slalom events have 4 medals.

"I still cherish my bronze at the Asian Championships. International medals are different and winning an Olympic medal is a dream for any athlete. When we started, we hardly got any facilities but now the Indian Kayaking and Canoeing Association (IKCA) is promoting the sport by organising events and providing facilities in every state. Even the SAI and various state governments are providing infrastructure and buying foreign boats. I hope we also start winning medals at the Olympics with such support," she added.

She won the K2 bronze partnering Sandhya Kispotta. They are neighbours and have been competing together for years now. Even Sandhya resumed kayaking a couple of months back. "First Covid and then birth of my child meant I couldn't train for two years. My child turned one recently. My child is with me only here in Ahmedabad. My husband takes care of the child when I am training or competing," said Sandhya.

Even if Rajina finishes on the podium on Tuesday, she doesn't want the medal to be her last at the event as she aspires to compete in the next National Games. "I will compete in the next edition that's for sure. After that I will assess my future. This sport has given me everything so I cannot stay away from it. I will keep serving it in some or other way," Rajina signed off.

Haryana judoka Yash shows his might with gold medal return

FIROZ MIRZA @Gandhinagar

AT 6 feet 1 inch, Yash Ghangas was weighing around 122kg when the pandemic led to nationwide lockdown in March 2020. He headed for his home in Panipat, Haryana as the SAI Centre in Bhopal like other sporting centres across the country, was shut down. He has been training there since 2018 under judo head coach Yashpal Singh Solanki.

And as the SAI centre reopened after eight months, thanks to home food, and lack of training, Yash had gained nearly 20kgs and was weighing 145 kgs. "I put on a lot of weight during that period. But once the training started, I began shedding extra kilos. Within a couple of months, I reached 122kg," Yash, who clinched +100kg judo gold here at the Mahatma Mandir, Gandhinagar on Monday, told this daily.

Senior National Judo Championships was held in Lucknow, in August to select top-16 judokas in each weight category for the Gujarat event. The Lucknow championships was 19-year-old Yash's first senior nationals. He lost the semifinal bout against Dhyan Singh of Rajasthan but finished on the podium winning a bronze medal.

Incidentally, the Rajasthan judoka was once again between him and the final bout on Monday. Yash, however, this time managed to avenge the past loss as he beat his opponent to enter the final. Earlier, he had defeated Vikash of Services Sports Control Board (SSCB) and Deepak PS of Kerala in round 1 and 2 respectively. He then got the better of Sunil of Chandigarh in the summit clash to win gold on his debut.

"He defeated me in the nationals semifinal and we met here again in the last-two bout. This time I managed to score the golden score to make up for the previous loss," said Yash, who had bagged a silver at 2021 Asia-Oceania Junior Championships.

Anand Kumar, Yash's father, was a kabaddi player and wanted his son to pursue wrestling. However, Yash started judo training in Pratap School, Kharkhoda (Haryana). "He always wanted me to pursue sports and wrestling was his choice, however, he never forced me to take up a particular sport. He was happy with my decision when I started judo training," added Yash.

Top boxers march into semifinals

Reigning national champion Sumit Kundu, former World Championship medallist Jamuna Boro and Asian champion Sanjeet cruised to the boxing semifinals of their respective weight divisions on Monday.

Representing the Services, Sumit, a quarterfinalist at the World Championships, managed to breach through the defences of Haryana's Ankit Khatana, across the three rounds before eventually pocketing the men's 75kg middleweight category bout by a unanimous verdict. He will now be up against Maharashtra's Nikhil Dubey for a place in the final.

In the 92kg heavyweight category, Sanjeet used his long arms to great effect against the shorter Delhi opponent Harsh Kaushik to win the bout by RSC.

Assam girls Jamuna Boro and Ankushita Boro registered dominating victories to confirm their respective semifinal berths. Jamuna will next face Haryana's Poonam, who defeated Manipur's Samim Band Khulakpham by split decision 4-1 in another 57kg quarterfinal. Similarly, Ankushita will take on Rajasthan's Lalita, against whom she enjoys a dominating 3-0 advantage in head-to-head count, the last-four stage.

WC: SPOTLIGHT ON U-17 WOMEN FOOTBALLERS

The FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup kicks off on Tuesday in Bhubaneswar. With hosts India taking on a strong USA side in the second game of the day, a look at the groups, team India and their fixtures...

TOUGH CHALLENGE

The hosts are in a tough group with the USA, Brazil and Morocco in Group A. USA are coming into the tournament as CONCACAF championships winners, where they had a goal difference of 58 to one. Riley Jackson, the best player in that tournament, and Amalia Villarreal, who finished as the joint-highest goal-scorer, are the ones to India would have to keep an eye on in the clash. While the USA have not gone past the group stages in the tournament since 2008, if they get going, they could be unstoppable as the tournament progresses.

WHO HOLDS KEY?

India are keeping the expectations in check ahead of the clash. They have tried to give themselves the best possible chance with exposure tours to Italy, Norway and Spain despite the off-field issues that unfolded. For the Thomas Dennerby's side, Lynda Kom Serto will spearhead the attack while Anita Kumari and Nitu Linda will operate from the wings.

INDIA'S FIXTURES

Oct 11	vs	USA
Oct 14	vs	Morocco
Oct 17	vs	Brazil

Top two teams from each group will qualify for the quarterfinals.

USA are the favourites against us, no doubt about that. But that is on paper and football is played on a pitch for 90 to 95 minutes. We feel that we also have a chance to get points against USA. We have prepared well since February and the players are ready for the tournament. Reaching the quarterfinals will be a huge achievement but we are currently on Tuesday's match.

Taekwondo to cricket via tennis & shot put

GOMESH S @Chennai

IT hasn't been a week since Bihar's Yashita Singh lit up the IC Gurunanak College Grounds, Chennai with the first and only century of the Women's U19 T20 Trophy so far this season. While her unbeaten 138 came against Nagaland, which might not be the strongest opponent, there was something about the Bihar batter.

Through the course of the 60-ball innings, the 15-year-old put on a hitting exhibition. She bludgeoned the Nagaland bowlers across the park, smashing 20x4s and 6x6s. The ease with which Yashita was able to maul the ball down the ground and over the ropes between covers to midwicket told that she was special. What makes it even fascinating is that until July 2019, the Bihar teenager hadn't started training to become a cricketer.

"Growing up, I was playing all sports," Yashita told this daily. "My favourite sport was taekwondo where I won several medals. Then, I was training for lawn tennis. My all India ranking was 20. I was also a shot put athlete for my school and have won in state level competitions. But at one point, I had to give it up. I loved playing cricket in our apartment with my brother and friends, but hadn't played it at any level till 2019," she said.

Her father Shailendra Kumar Singh, who has played cricket at university level, had an "established business". But due to unfortunate circumstances, he had to shut it down. That's when he started focussing on training both his children in cricket. Taking the suggestion of former Bihar cricketer Vishnu Shankar, he focused on Yashita's cricket and within six months, she made it as a standby to the women's senior team at the age of 12.

Yashita made her U23 and U19 debuts for the state. Having played only individual sports until that point, team sport was new for her. She had no fear of whether she was playing with or against an India international. Although she did not make a mark in the circuit that year, it did not take long for her to advance to the senior team. In 2021, she played for Bihar senior women at the age of 14.

Through this time, the journey wasn't easy. During the pandemic, the struggles at home got only harder. "It was very difficult. I was focusing only on coaching my kids for 7-8 hours a day. The joy of playing the sport is nowhere else," Shailendra Kumar told this daily from Patna.

At this point, Yashita had become a regular in the state side. However, she hadn't made it to the next level. When she did not get selected for the U19 one-day challengers in 2021 after finishing 12th in the runs tally, Yashita realised she had to do more. "I should be in the top five to move up the ladder," said the teenager.

Playing different sports at a young age has helped her in that regard. The ease with which she is able to free her arms and hit through the length in the leg side with her forehand comes from the years she spent playing lawn tennis. And it is her hitting ability that got her to the zonal camp held in Hubbali earlier this year. But a shoulder injury before the matches in the camp meant she couldn't make it to the 25-member NCA camp in August.

While the U19 World Cup is her dream, the only thing that is in Yashita's mind right now is helping Bihar win the U19 T20 tournament. As they take on Delhi in the pre-quarterfinals in Ahmedabad on Tuesday, the 15-year-old is at the top of the batting charts and how she performs will be key to Bihar's success. "We are going to make history this year," Yashita signed off.

With mix of experience & youth, TN hopeful of good show

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

DEFENDING champions Tamil Nadu, led by B Aparajith, has the right mixture of experience and youth in its ranks as they take on Chhattisgarh in their first match of the Syed Mushtaq Ali tournament at Lucknow on Tuesday. The team has prepared well and is confident of doing well in the tournament.

Tamil Nadu will be without the services of all-rounder Washington Sundar, who is on national duty. They also will not have Dinesh Karthik, R Ashwin (in Australia for the T20 World Cup) and Vijay Shankar (recovering from surgery). However, they will be pleased with the return of T Natarajan and Varun Chakravarthy who are in good shape. Incidentally, last season the duo were in and out of various squads at various levels due one injury after another.

"We have a good side with the right mixture of experience and youth. Washy is not there, but I believe it is an opportunity for someone to prove their worth. We had a camp at Natham, NPR college grounds and it went on very well. At the camp, we tried to get into the T20 mode as most of the boys had been playing the TNCA league, Duleep Trophy and one day games. We succeeded in the switch and progressed very well in the seven-day camp," informed M Venkataramana.

He added that despite the absence of several India internationals, the team has all-round players with experience in the Indian Premier League. "About 14 of our players were part of IPL teams and some have gone in as net bowlers for various teams. We have a potentially well balanced side for this format. This format needs all rounders, we have players with good all-round capabilities. Plus, Washington might join the side after his ODI series against SA gets over," said Venkataramana.

That said if there is a concern for the state side, it is their death overs bowling. Venkataramana believes that Natarajan's good form in the VAP trophy is a big boost for them. "His experience and execution in the death overs will come in handy for the team. Varun is (also) working hard. He is aware of what is required to stay in this game. I am sure he will send a strong signal to make a comeback into this tournament as well as the national side. With Natarajan and other experienced bowlers we should be able to close those gaps in the death overs," opined the former NCA bowling coach.

In the batting department, TN have the flexibility to rotate as they have several players who could open or bat in the top-order. "We have regular openers like Sai Sudharsan, Jagadeesan and Hari Nishanth. Newcomer G Ajitesh also being there means we have plenty of options to rotate and shuffle our batting line up," he said.

Meanwhile, in the middle and lower-order there is no dearth of power as Sharukh Khan has been a proven finisher for the state side in the shortest format.

SCIENCE MADE FUN

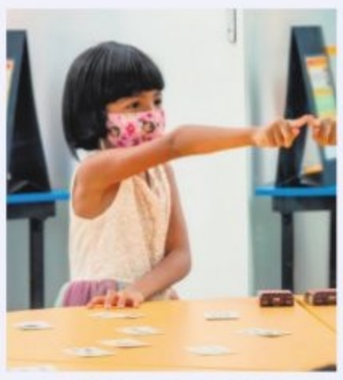
CuriouScity Science Discovery Centre is a new place in the city for learning and amusement, not just for kids but families too

EXPRESS FEATURES

FROM mixing solutions for the change of colour to fuelling the bunsen burner flame with different salts, science laboratories have stood witness to all the ways in which students experiment when the teacher is away. It has always excited the young and the old.

With a vision to complement the education system with fun activities and experiments, the CuriouScity Science Discovery Centre brings science to life with an inquiry-based approach where kids and families will be able to explore concepts. The campus is located near Dommasandra Circle, off Sarjapura Road and was opened to the public recently.

Founded by couple Shonali and Arun Chinniah, CuriouScity Science Discovery Centre is a new space to answer all science-related questions.



Shonali, who is a biologist and a teacher, realised that learning has become textbook oriented and children have no practical knowledge. "I have been into teaching for a few years now. It wasn't very long ago when one of the teachers at my children's school had gone on a sabbatical and I was asked to fill the space. I took over Class 11 and what pained me was the fact that they were so textbook oriented that one girl who had a photographic memory gave me textbook answers every time I asked a question," says the biologist.

But with doing projects and preparing question papers themselves, kids learnt a lot with Shonali. "I once took them to the IISc campus to get them to see what actual scientists do. The students were then asked to come up with a project idea, collect data, analyse and complete the project. They learnt a lot more than just the bookish knowledge," says Shonali, who has a PhD in ecology and marine biology.

Three years ago, Shonali and her husband Chinniah spent every last penny they had to build the campus. Chinniah says that it is a step ahead in making learning fun and enjoyable. "Our education system focusses more on clearing an exam and not on learning the subject. Children lose the joy of learning and we, as a society, are never capable of finding solutions and thinking out of the box. At CuriouScity, they can explore the subject more for the joy of it," he says.

The Science Centre will be open for schools for workshops on weekdays and the public on the weekends and select public holidays. "We have different zones of activities. The idea is not to let kids feel that this is not the only place where they can experiment. The experiments are hand designed by us using everyday materials. It comprises sections like the illusion room with large exhibits, a science play section for the kids where they can make bubbles of different shapes – round, triangular and square – birds and butterfly parks, and the animal zone where children will learn to empathise with wildlife and nature," Shonali says adding that they plan to utilise the weekend collection to host students from government schools at no cost.

Families can explore the place on their own with the help of signs to tell what is to be done at each station and the science behind it. Each area will have one staff member or a volunteer. Shows will also be hosted at intervals in the theatre or courtyard area, along with a treasure hunt or two.

The couple also experimented a lot during the summer camp. "I would often put the kids against the parents in fun activities. For instance, they were asked to build a mechanical hand using a straw, string, and paper to pick a paper ball. The parents struggled and were surprised to see that the kids did a lot better than them," says Shonali.

The two-acre-land also has an outdoor experience. "We spend a large amount outdoors – recycling water with solar energy, exploring animals and more. As a biologist, Shonali wants to introduce nature walks, bird watching, and water conservation programmes. A lot of outdoor programmes will be pulled in the coming days," says Chinniah.

Monsoon Weddings

Wedding planners in the city speak with CE about how the heavy rain in the past few weeks posed a severe organisational challenge

TUNIR BISWAS

IF you have seen Mira Nair's 2001 film Monsoon Wedding, you would agree that aside from the social commentary present in the feature film, it also portrayed two beautiful weddings in the rain. Now while the goal for wedding planners and the wedding party is to make sure all proceedings go smoothly, heavy showers and torrential rain in Bengaluru always pose a challenge.

"During the past few weeks, we had two weddings planned. Luckily, our weddings were in the southern part of the city, so we did not get into too much trouble. But I'm sure the guest list must have gotten affected by people coming to the wedding from the flooded areas. It was a low show for one of the events. We waited till 4 am to start our decor work as people were very keen to hold the mandap outside, but the rain wasn't stopping," says Roseline David, business head (wedding planning) at Meragi.

Ivy Emmanuel, director of Unicorn Weddings Bangalore, reveals that during situations like these, the production timelines need to be buffered, and one needs to always stay on their foot to be prepared for any uncertainty. "If it's an outdoor wedding, we ensure we put a covering or slight roofing. So even if it rains, the inventory doesn't get adversely affected. The best option is to have your decor mostly indoor rather than outdoor," says Emmanuel, who adds that any added cost (things like German tents) that comes with trying to cope with the unpredictable weather is borne by the client, and it usually amounts to something around half a lakh rupees on an average.

PIC| HARSHS

David shares that it is always a good precautionary measure to familiarise oneself with the weather reports. "Erratic weather is common in Bengaluru most of the time, especially during monsoons. So it is always safe to keep monitoring the weather forecast and making sure an alternate plan exists. We need to also let the client know beforehand of any sudden changes that may arrive," says David.

Despite the logistical problems it creates, Rashida Abuwalla, founder of I Do! Weddings & Occasions, feels rain adds a romantic element to weddings. "We are blessed in Bengaluru to have monsoons which are usually not too heavy. The perfect ambient temperature and the slow drizzle make for a brilliant setting for a romantic monsoon wedding," says Abuwalla.

LIFE'S ABOUT HAPPY 'ARRIVALS' AND SAD 'DEPARTURES'; DO NOT DISTURB IT

ILLUSTRATION: SOURAV ROY

TWENTY years ago, even as my wife was admitted to a maternity nursing home, expecting our second child, my father was put into the intensive care unit of a hospital with congestive heart failure. Shuttling between the maternity home and the hospital, I observed a distinct difference in the set of emotions in both the places.

While happiness dominated over the arrivals of newborns at the maternity home, the scenes in front of the ICU at the hospital remained solemn. Wails of people – waiting outside with sheer hope of recovery of the loved one admitted inside – rented the air on being informed about the worst. They beat their chests, rolled on the ground, screamed at the Almighty, and pleaded with Him to reverse their grief.

Others passed sympathetic glances at the just-bereaved, while whispering desperate prayers for the recovery of their own loved ones lying inside the ICU. Many among the latter found themselves in the former's position. But I was fortunate not to be among them.

While escorting my father back home on being discharged, I couldn't help thinking that most of those admitted to the maternity home – my wife among them – walk out with budding bundles of life in their arms. But the hospital wears a different look, some returning with the mortal remains of their dear ones who do not make it, while others, like me, return with a persisting worry about possible future relapses. Yet, I was happy with my father's arrival back home.

A fortnight ago, I was at the Bangalore International Airport with my wife and younger son, and a group of friends of my elder son, who was going abroad for higher studies. The word "Departure" screamed down at us. But at the far end, outside the terminal, a more pleasant and an assuring word announced itself – "Arrival".

People stood or sat in groups outside the "Departure" gate, many teary-eyed and lumps the size of an apple in their throats, while waiting for the time their loved ones said "goodbye" and stepped inside the terminal. At the far end, the "Arrival" witnessed scenes of much celebration, dancing, jumping, hugging and kissing – a happy lot!

"Arrival" characterises scenes of being reunited, of lives coming back together, of getting what was elusive. "Departure" rips you away from your loved ones, leaving a feeling of deprivation, of sadness, of anxiety – with which we returned home.

But what would life be without "arrivals" and "departures"? Every day, our life sees us departing from a place to arrive somewhere else. Life is filled with arrivals and departures. We feel happy with arrivals. We are happy when Virat Kohli arrives at the crease, sad when he departs; we were happy when Sachin Tendulkar was at his peak, sad when he departed from the cricketing arena. We like it when money comes in, hate it when it leaves us – which is why we try ensuring that more arrives and as less of it as possible departs, a process that we have labelled as "saving".

A good thing about our feelings about "arrival" and "departure" is that it transcends religious boundaries. It is as secular as it comes. One cannot assign a religious tag to these feelings. The feelings are human.

The only way this set of feelings can be disrupted to completely turn it on its head is through widespread hatred, as is taking root in many parts of our country, including Karnataka. Then one may end up sad with the "arrivals" and happy with the "departures". Hatred makes people happy with others' "departure".

If there is one "departure" I would be happy with, it is that of "hatred" itself. Then we can continue being happy with "arrivals" – and being together – and sad with "departures" – and being apart.

Kochi-based Totem Facts brings a range of t-shirts focussing on things close to our hearts, but inspired by art and traditions

MEMORIES ON TEES

ASHYL ELIZABATH PAUL

AS we move ahead in life, many cherished moments are left behind along with the hobbies and the personalities associated with them. In the wham-bam pace of life, there is always an endeavour to catch up on those treasured times, and lock it in the vault, which would be opened later when in despair and debacle.

In the green meadows of our memories, we remember our grandparents narrating the tales of our rich heritage, culture and the eclectic traditions. Some of it has been retained, but others were forgone while embarking on a journey of ambitions and achievements.

But what could be better than wearing something that would exhibit the connection with things we cherish while also serving as a bridge to our traditions.

A Kochi-based brand called Totem Facts is ushering in a modern twist to the way we can keep our connection with our past alive and kicking. Their range of t-shirts focusses on elements which are close to our hearts like music. It is an artist's collection that highlights original art inspired by the indigenous cultures worldwide.

The product is a manifestation of an artist's imagination. Their ideas are sketched down using pencil, and then later printed. "Our brand not just focuses on a particular concept, we give priority to everything that is art-based," says the co-founder of the brand and business head Dhanesh Balakrishnan.

Every brand requires a stroke of idea which might be ill-shaped but caters to people and can attract others to stir their contributions. So, there was no boardroom meeting, or invitation to experts to share their strategic information. But the idea first came to Midhun Madhav, who then later suggested it to Dhanesh and Manoj Murali.

"I wanted to start something like this when we were in college. Manoj was my classmate. In 2021, we finally developed the idea with Dhanesh, my roommate. Then everything just fell into place," recalls Midhun.

The trio launched their website on January 13, 2022. "Totem which means spiritual being, sacred objects or symbols which is a reminder of its ancestry, our brand is an exact definition of that," explains Dhanesh. "The images, art, and other aspects make you think and learn something new," he said. "Each design is unique in its own way like our most sold-out Nangeli t-shirt which comes with a quote- 'Ennile, Ninnile Nangeli' (The Nangeli within you and me)," he added.

Nangeli is a fictional story of an Ezhava (lower caste) women in the early 19th century in Cherthala in the erstwhile state of Travancore, Kerala, and supposedly had their breasts cut off to protest against the breasts tax.

The art is also inspired by Pink Floyd, Srilankan masks and even the famous poet Changampuza. However, the collections do not just end there, and they also create patterns of birds, jungle and the ocean, the elements that are irreversibly tied to nature. The attachment or longing to be there amidst the lap of nature can also be the reason we can go for these t-shirts.

"We have also made merchandise shirts for popular music bands like Thaikkudam Bridge. Each of the art etched on the t-shirt is also explained in detail on our Instagram page as well. We want to keep our culture and tradition alive through our work," explains Murali.

THE ORIGINS OF SACRED MUSIC

IN most cultures, music has traditionally evolved in two ways: sacred music (the music of the temples and churches), and temporal music (the music of the people).

The origins of sacred music in many religions around the world is strikingly similar. The development of temporal music has many different paths and deserves to be the subject of separate articles.

In Hinduism, the Rig Veda, the oldest known collection of Sanskrit hymns, was passed down for over a thousand years through a solely oral traditional. Priests would chant the Rig Veda, originally in a monotone. Over time, a note higher or lower than the original tone would be used, to emphasise or accent a particular word or phrase. This led to the creation of the characteristic tri-tone Rig Vedic chant.

By the time of the Sama Veda, for the first time, seven notes were used while chanting, and those seven notes constitute an octave. The Sama Veda is believed to be the origin of Indian classical music – both the Carnatic and Hindustani traditions. Post the Vedic period, Indian classical music continued to develop as a single style, until the 12th century CE, where Islamic influences in the Northern parts of India led to a separate Hindustani Classical music, which became the music of the courts. Carnatic music, the Classical music of Southern India continued along Vedic traditions and remained the music of the temples. Most of the earliest and best-known composers of both traditions were considered poet-saints or ascetics, like Thyagaraja or Mirabai.

(The authors run SaPa - the Subramaniam Academy of Performing Arts)

In central Europe, around the 9th century CE, Gregorian chants were developed in the Roman Catholic Church. Monks would chant Latin hymns in a monotone, also called plainsong. As the plainsong developed to involve more notes, simple repetitive melodic patterns were created. Gregorian chants had a simple method of notation, with words written below the notation. The melodies were in six note patterns, and accordance with simple scale patterns known as modes. There were originally four modes, then eight and finally twelve. Early polyphony, or different voices singing different melodies, was developed during this time. Polyphony is the foundation for modern harmony.

Since then, sacred music in both traditions have developed in very different ways, and it could be difficult to identify the common roots, but it's always fascinating to see how similar origins in different points of time in different parts of the world have led to beautifully distinct musical styles.

Dhananjay
and team Head Bush go retro for promotions

CE FEATURES

IF Dhananjay and a bunch of other actors were spotted wearing bell bottoms and travelling in ambassadors, then the team Head Bush would be happy about their promotional strategies. With the release fixed for October 21, the team including producer and lead actor Dhananjay has left no stone unturned to promote the film.

Based on the book My Days in the Underworld: Rise of the Bangalore Mafia by Agni Sridhar, Head Bush is directed by debutant Shoonya. It is a period drama set around the Bengaluru underworld of 1970. Interestingly, Dhananjay and other lead actors part of the film have been roleplaying as their respective characters on social media. In fact, photos and videos of them in the retro avatar has become viral.

Stylist Shachina Heggar has customised 100 bell-bottom pants and shirts of that period to add to the promotions of Head Bush. The makers have also hired a dozen ambassador cars for the same.

Ask Dhananjay about this new strategy for Head Bush, the actor shares that the success of such creative promotions for Badava Rascal pushed him to do the same for this project too. "Today, the audience, are not just waiting for the release date, but also for the promotions of our film. Even fans are bringing bell bottoms back in trend," says Dhananjay, adding, "No doubt, the film has turned out very well. Every technician and actor has done a brilliant job, and it will be a one-of-its-kind experience for the audience. These promotions are just to ensure the audience know about Head Bush. This is one of the attempts to reach out to them. Later it is left to their judgment, and how they want to take it forward."

The film made under Daali Pictures in association with Somanna Talkies has Payal Rajput making her Kannada debut. Head Bush also has an interesting cast including Vasishta N Simha, Ravichandran, Sruthi Hariharan, Yogi, and Raghu Mukherjee playing prominent roles. The film has Charan Raj scoring the music.

SHIVARAJKUMAR
IN TALKS FOR DHANUSH'S CAPTAIN MILLER?

A SHARADHAA

WE had recently confirmed that Shivarajkumar was playing a prominent character in Rajinikanth-Nelson's upcoming film, Jailer. It has now come to light that the Century Star might be starring in another big-ticket Tamil film.

The makers of Dhanush-Arun Matheswaran's Captain Miller have approached Shivanna to play a pivotal role in this period drama. Bankrolled by Sathya Jyothi Films, Captain Miller also features Sundeep Kishan and Priyanka Arul Mohan.

The project is currently on floors, and according to our sources, the production house has been in talks with Shivanna, who is one of the busiest actors in Sandalwood.

Meanwhile, Shivanna is almost through with the shooting for Vedha except for a pending song, and he has even completed dubbing for the project. He will soon start shooting for the Srini-Sandesh Nagaraj project, and will also work on the Yogaraj Bhat project with Rockline Venkatesh.

If things fall in place, it is expected that Shivanna will give the nod, and an announcement will be out soon. Captain Miller is set in the pre-independence era and has Shreyaas Krishna handling the cinematography, GV Prakash Kumar in charge of the music, and Nagooran taking care of the editing responsibilities.

An official confirmation about the veteran actor joining the cast is expectedd to be out soon. Similarly, we also reported how legendary Malayalam superstar Mohanlal might be roped in for the film too.

Chello Show, India's official Oscar entry, gets a release date

CE FEATURES

The film will also be released in the USA, France, Japan and Italy.

THE ICONIC IMAGERY OF ATHENA

RAM VENKAT SRIKAR

FLAUNTING its visual prowess in every scene, the Romain Gavras-directed French tragedy, Athena, utilises long, single-shot sequences to move the story forward. This creative decision not only adds to the style but wonderfully communicates a sense of urgency and chaos that's riddled all over this explosive story which spins a Greek mythology-like take on pressing themes like police brutality and mob mentality. Matias Boucard, the film's director of photography, has delivered an exhilarating visual experience that is likely to remain unparalleled this year.

In this conversation with Cinema Express, Matias recalls the preparation, the adrenaline rush and the efforts that made the film possible.

Excerpts:

At what point was the decision to opt for these long stretches made?

Romain had it in the script. When I received the script, it constituted of eight to nine individual sequences. From the beginning, we wanted to craft an immersive and real experience. We follow the point-of-view of a few characters who will explain the story to the audience. The idea was to make the audience a part of the riot.

What was your first reaction when you read the script?

I wondered how we were going to make it (laughs). I had so many questions—like the practicality, the numerous locations, shifting the action between locations. I wondered if it was possible. And then I told myself, "Just because you don't know how to make it doesn't mean that it is impossible." I visualised all those shots in my mind to see how they would play out on screen and that helped. For instance, one aspect of sequence shots that I am not particularly fond of is that there will be times when the screen will look empty without action. Romain worked with the actors and me to perfect the rhythm of these shots and ensure that it didn't look choreographed.

It must have been a tough task to make the choreography look natural.

It was all made possible with a lot of precision and practice. Also, we just allowed things to happen and tried to keep everything real. When you do everything—the stunts and the explosions—for real, the actors feel danger and it reflects in the scene. We chose to organise the chaos and didn't try to control it.

How much planning was required to achieve this precision?

Romain, who had it all in his brilliant mind, explained to me all the sequence shots—and we spent five to six weeks rehearsing with a tiny crew. I was finding and designing the movement, without a Steadicam, gimbal, or drone. With the actors, ten policemen and twenty people in the mob at our disposal, we were just figuring out solutions, understanding the shots and constructing them. We then did an amateur, small-scale version of the movie in six weeks, which is enough time to make an actual movie (laughs). We learned how to shoot it first and then we brought more people in, rehearsed again, and then began filming. Yes, it is a lot of work, but at the end of the day, you just have one day with everyone filming the real scene—with hundreds of people and all the real fireworks—and the chaos is also real. You can't choreograph everything; you just define what's close to the camera and let everything else happen. We rehearsed for nearly 30 days and shot the film in 50 days.

How did you solve any roadblocks?

Simple. I was not trying to find all the solutions at the same time (smiles). The problems are not that complicated.

Really?

What I mean is, the fact that these shots are telling a story helps. It is not just about how technical the shots are. Yes, they are difficult to pull, and one needs training, teamwork, focus and decision-making skills, but in the end, what makes a shot work is the story it is telling at the moment. We were trying to free ourselves from the technical stuff and not think about the complications involved. We shot the whole film using old-school techniques and normal equipment. We achieved it using the 120 years of filmmaking experiences and stories that preceded us. Honestly, we didn't make the film with an intention to make it look cool; we had a story to tell.

It is the emotion that matters. For instance, when you look at Karim and the chaos after he gets out of the van, as the camera comes outside, you realise the change in the location only after a while and the wow factor hits you. It is magic.

That sequence with the fireworks striking the police force is brilliant to behold.

Thanks! Among the challenges while filming the sequence was standing and operating the camera under real fireworks. For the first part of the sequence (that sees the police walk up to a bridge), we hired the biggest crane in Europe, put it on a truck, which drove backward, and the police had to assemble perfectly. It is all about the timing between the camera and the actors. It was achieved with rehearsal and visualisation, by combining all the small technical parts to form one giant sequence.

Matias Boucard
